'Read Code Before You Buy'

Frank Greenwood, superintendent of Daly City's Jefferson Elementary School District, today urged parents of the district's students to delay purchasing school clothes for the coming year until they have had an opportunity to view a new "dress code" adopted by the board of trustees.

"Copies of the new dress code will be mailed to parents about the second week of school," the superintendent said, "or as soon as the district has the addresses of the new children."

The new dress code was compiled this summer by a committee composed of parents, teachers and students, and was approved by the board two weeks ago.

The "code" specifies that all students "must exhibit an appearance that is clean, modest and conducive to classroom and general school safety," and that students "should not be allowed to attend classes if their dress or general appearance is determined to be a source of disturbance to the learning opportunity of others."

"Bizarre, costume-type apparel and body decoration are not appropriate" under the new dress standards, though students will be allowed to express their individual tastes "within generally prescribed limitations."

"All students are to dress in a manner that is clean, modest and safe, and must wear footwear" under the code.

Students are to wear attire "appropriate for the occasion" on field trips, and personal grooming is to be done in the restrooms only.

For boys, the code prescribes that "hair should be clean and well-groomed and limited to shirt collar length, socks should be worn with footwear, shirts that are commonly used as underwear should be covered, hats or caps should not be worn, clothing symbolic of gangs or radical movements should not be worn and "cutoffs" or beachwtar are inappropriate.

Girls are to wear dresses or skirts "long enough to permit modesty while sitting." Pants are inappropriate, and hair styles should be moderate and "clean and well-groomed." Make-up is inappropriate for school, with the exception of lipstick, and hosiery should be worn with footwear.

According to the superintendent, the new code represents "preferred standards" as proposed by the committee, and exceptions are allowable upon written request of parents.

The superintendent said parents could safely purchase "normal" school clothing before viewing the new code but advised against the purchase of slacks or slack suits for girls "with the intention of having them wear them to school during the coming year."

Agreement By SSF On Westborough

By DON GRIERSON

(Earlier Story, Inside)

South San Francisco councilmen Monday adopted a resolution authorizing an agreement with the county for construction of the Westborough Boulevard extension, ending an impasse which has held up development of the $4 million project more than two years.

Mayor Frank Bertucelli, who has led a fight for a number of conditions and concessions on the part of the county in the joint undertaking, said supervisors have now agreed to meet the city's terms on important aspects of the project, and "everything now appears to be in order."

Bertucelli and other members of the council insisted several weeks ago that they would not approve the proposed agreement until final construction plans were submitted for their review.

However, the preliminary plans submitted by the county engineer are "virtually complete," according to Public Works Director Louis Goss, and the council acted with the understanding that there could be little change in the existing plans.

The agreement authorized by the council "reflects the negotiations of the past several months," City Attorney John Noonan said Monday, and specifies plans and specifications for the storm drain project to be undertaken in connection with the road construction and special landscaping provisions.

The agreement calls for county maintenance of the Colma Creek storm drain for a period of at least four years.

If the proposed Colma Creek flood control project is not under way at the end of the four-year period, the county will assume maintenance responsibility for the drain for an additional three years.

City officials earlier insisted that the county assume permanent responsibility for maintaining the drain, along with liability for any flood damage which might result from its installation, but supervisors refused "because such a move would

GOSS TELLS COUNCIL:

Light Standards on SSF's Grand Avenue 'Dilapidated'

South San Francisco Public Works Director Louis Goss Monday told members of the council the lighting standards along Grand Avenue are dilapidated to the extent that he is afraid to allow a church group permission to string a banner across the street.

In response to a request from William Malone, festival chairman for All Souls Church, for permission to erect a 35-foot long, 30-inch wide canvas banner across Grand Avenue, Goss said he is afraid to put the extra weight on the standards.

"Inasmuch as the existing street light standards have been installed for many years and the bases and anchor bolts of many are badly rusted, it is the opinion of my office that the imposition of the additional wind load from the banner might cause failure and collapse of the light standards," the public works director said.

Goss said he would have no objection to the installation of "free flying" flag-type banners, but wind pressure on the proposed attached banner "would create quite a tug."

The public works department has postponed replacing the ancient light standards because of the "uncertain future" of Grand Avenue, Goss said.

"We don't know if the street will be widened in the immediate future, or if the downtown area will be converted into a pedestrian mall," he said.

New Daly City Agreement For Library Service Near

The board of trustees of the Daly City Library Monday presented a draft agreement to the City Council which would provide library service to residents of Colma, unincorporated Colma, Broadmoor and Garden Village.

Mrs. Gertrude Kendree, president of the board, said tentative agreement had been reached with the county on terms which will adequately compensate the city for extending library service to these areas.

In the past, San Mateo County provided some 7,000 books, certain reference services and short term loan books to the city as a sort of repayment for providing services to the concerned areas.

Under the new agreement, the county will reimburse the city with cash.

Estimated revenues to be received under the agreement range between $15,000-$20,000, City Librarian Samuel Chandler revealed.

A survey conducted recently indicated Daly City averages a 25 per cent readership among its residents — one of the highest in California.

Until another survey can be conducted to determine how many "outsiders" will use the local library facilities, a minimum figure of 1,500 and a maximum of 2,000 book borrowers will be used as a guide, Chandler said.

Chandler said this figure was subject to change after the County Librarian determines the present ratio with respect to county population.

The agreement for these services wil run for one year periods, with both sides agreeing on any cancellations 90 days in advance.

Pacifica is not included in the agreement inasmuch as that city now has county-provided library facilities, Chandler explained.

The residents of the areas outside Daly City will be issued colored library cards which will change each year.

Mrs. Kenree said the cash outlay by the county for the services is a "much better" agreement than the city has had in the past and felt the agreement "is an adequate contract."

She recommended approval.

Chandler commented that it was "the best contract we have ever had.

He said it was the same proposal the commission had made to the county last year, "but we got nowhere at that time."

Revenue Dips

Tax Rate in D.C. 25-Cents Higher

Assessed valuation figures for Daly City may have risen considerably this year, but the sharp decline in revenues from auto sales taxes have made it necessary to hold the line on the tax rate, the city council learned Monday.

The new tax rate, which is scheduled to be officially adopted by the council next Monday, is $1.81 per $100 of assessed valuation—some 25 cents higher than 1968.

And while the county has increased the assessment rolls to $125,675,195 (less 4 per cent for delinquent accounts) it was found necessary to leave the tax rate at its earlier projected figure of $1.81, City Manager Dave Rowe explained.

The closing of three major auto firms in the city projected a sales tax loss of some $130,000 for the year.

Last year's tax rate was $1.56 per $100 of assessed valuation.

Daly City's 1969-1970 budget totals $6,964,040.

A 'Natural Death' Planned For Westbrae Development

The Daly City Council plans to let the Westbrae Avenue apartment house development die a natural death following last week's Planning Commission zone change denial of the three-acre site.

The council is expected to table the matter at their next regular meeting Monday.

If the matter is allowed to remain shelved for two regular meetings, it will "die" and be removed from active agenda subjects, according to City Atty. Albert Polonsky.

Since the development of the cliffside property was first approached some ten years ago, it has bounced back and forth between various developers and the city.

Builder Henry Doelger turned the site over to a church group initially and a church was planned for the site.

Next, a convalescent home was planned, followed by a complex of single-family homes. The latest idea was to construct four multi-storied concrete and steel apartment houses on the 500-foot high bluff in the residential area.

SSF Agrees to Pay Half The Cost of New Culvert

South San Francisco councilmen Monday agreed to pay half the cost of installing a 60-inch culvert behind residences along Armor Avenue and Linden Avenue.

Councilmen agreed to initiate an assessment district to provide the 550-foot culvert after several residents submitted a petition requesting the project and exprssing their willingness to share in the cost.

"The culvert will eliminate a flood hazard to the adjacent properties which are presently being undermined by erosion," the petition submitted to the council states.

The property owners estimated total cost of the project at $33,000. The estimated cost to the owner of a 50-foot lot will be $750, provided the city contributes one-half of the total cost, the petitioners said.

Public Works Director Louis Goss said work will begin on the project immediately, and his department will attempt to complete the culvert installation before the winter rains this year.

Water Rates Won't Vary

There will be no difference in water reates between San Francisco and San Mateo County, Mayor Joseph Alioto has informed the San Mateo County Council of Mayors.

Alioto indicated an over-all water rate raise was in order, but he did not say how much this increase would be or when it would go into effect.

Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett praised San Carlos Mayor Tom Jenkins for his assistance throughout the discussions and told his fellow councilmen Monday that without Jenkin' expert help the agreement would have died.

Jenkins was instrumental in drawing up a proposed "Agreement for Joint Exercise of Powers by the Peninsula Water Agency" and also of rallying county mayors into supporting the agency.

An application form was sent to the council for their action, but the matter was turned over to staff for study for two weeks before formally applying for membership.

San Bruno's Planners And Council Meet

San Bruno City Councilmen and planning commissioners got their heads together Monday night on what they ultimately want in the way of "D" zoning district ordinance that would be designed to give the city greater control of the community's total, continuing development.

What emerged, according to one source, were indications that while a proposed "D" zone law the planners have been working on is a strong one, it lacks certain features both councilmen and planning commissioners agreed should be included.

The joint meeting was heralded as "very productive."

The "D" zone law, a type of

Mary's Help Hospital Tells Plans for New Expansion

By FRANK LA PIERRE

In a last ditch effort to block granting of a use permit for development of the so-called Papazian property adajcent to Mary's Help Hospital, a contingent of hospital advisors unveiled the latest long-range plans for the future of the medical facility.

As important as the hospital was to the community, Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett explained the six-member group, which included attorney Hugh Conneley, president of the hospital's Lay Advisory Board, had "come to the wrong people."

"I think you should have gone to Jack Papazian with this," Mayor Lycett said after noting the hospital master plan included the entire 11-acre Papazian property in its expansion scheme.

Architect Clark Davis, of Stone, Marraccini and Patterson, briefed the council on the plans during an informal study session Monday.

Davis said that by 1975 Mary's Help would not only expand its acute care facility (by 1971); construct a multi-storied diagnostic and treatment facility (1972) north of the main building (on Papazian land); but would also have a heliport on the roof of the acute care structure.

South of the acute facility, which is also expected to expand outward, will be a mental health center and a convent for sisters working on the campus.

This expansion will also ne-

set a precedent, and destroy the concept of the flood control zone."

Other provisions of the agreement authorized this week include an arrangement for the city and county to share the expense of a pedestrian overpass to be built at Camaritas Avenue and Westborough Boulevard extension.

It will also allow the city to establish an assessment district along the new roadway to help defray a portion of the cost.

In addition, county officials have agreed to negotiate a request that the city be reimbursed for a portion of the right-of-way to be routed through Buri-Buri Park, and they have agreed to proceed with planned improvements on Airport Boulevard in the city, according to Mayor Bertucelli.

Another condition of the agreement calls for construction of the "upper portion" of the Westborough extension first, the mayor said.

One man stepped on another's toe at a San Francisco party early Sunday and the other complained his corn hurt. A fight followed in which a knife and a gun were drawn.

Police said Price Davis, 54, shot nine times at Melvin Jordan, 36, Daly City.

Jordan died en route to the hospital. Two women were slightly wounded.

cessitate building larger parking lots, Davis pointed out.

To the east of the main facility will be a multi-storied parking lot capable of parking some 1,065 cars, while west of the acute hospital will be an underground parking lot for doctors, nurses, and technicians.

Off to the southeast, on what is presently Papazian property, a small housing development will be constructed for medical help personnel. Also planned for the northern side, behind the diagnostic and treatment facility, is an open parking lot—also on Papazian property.

The group admitted they had not, as yet, contacted Papazian or H. H. Vitt on the matter.

Vitt has applied for a use permit which would allow him to build a convalescent hospital on the Papazian site.

Mayor Lycett informed the hospital group that Papazian had been trying for more than two years to develop his property "and I don't think it's the city's problem to negotiate what amounts to a private property deal."

In addition to Davis and Conneley, Rex Chase, associate administrator; William C. Finlayson, assistant administrator, and Stuart Led, administrative resident, attended the meeting.

Drug Charge For D.C. Man

Stanley Cordoba, of 131 Curtiss Street, San Francisco, was arrested Saturday night and charged with driving a vehicle under the influence of drugs.

Police said Cordoba was seen driving erratically down Junipero Serra Boulevard and was stopped at the corner of Junipero Serra and Washington.

He successfully passed tests administered to determine if he was under the influence of alcohol.

Cordoba allegedly informed police he had not been drinking, rather he had been smoking marijuana, according to a police spokesman.

slipping into the sea following moderate earth movements in the area, was the main reason for rejecting the plan — not once, but twice — by the City Planning Commission.

Developer Phillip B. Wallace had earlier withdrawn his zone change request — from R-1 to R-3 — and resubmitted the apartment house plans under the "PD" or Planned Development zoning.

The commission had earlier recommended denial of the zone change and forwarded the matter to the city council, which in turn studied the plans and referred them back to planning for further consideration. The commission denied the request for a second time.

which had been rejected by the City Council a few years ago, essentially achieves the same thing as a planned development. It's premise is that once a developer's plans are approved by the city, there may be no deviation.

The planners re-incarnated the "D" zoning proposal after Councilman George Corey urged some type of legislation — or at least a study in that direction—to get around what Corey said were "too many wood-frame structures."

Planning commissioners indicated they wanted to take a "longer look at" the proposal, though the attitude of both the councilmen and planners appeared generally favorable.

The two bodies also discussed at length variance procedures.

Problem that appear to have been resolved in the session were feelings by councilmen that the commission was not telling them what specific issues had been involved in decisions that subsequently have been appealed, and the sentiment of planners that councilmen have not been studying the decisions of planners on these cases brought before the council on appeal.

Pacifica Baby-sitter Saves Trio

A Pacifica baby-sitter led three of the four youngsters she was tending to safety after she discovered a bedroom engulfed in flames August 12.

Two tots, their ages 4 and 2½, were napping in the bedroom at the time. A third youngster was elsewhere in the three-bedroom, wood-frame home owned by the Keith Ledbetters, while a fourth played outside, according to Pacifica firemen.

Firemen said the fire at 1427 Perez, in the Linda Mar district, broke out shortly before 1:30 p.m.

The baby-sitter, 14-year-old Arlene McLaine of 1407 Perez, said she heard youngsters yelling from the front bedroom. Checking, she found the bedding and curtains burning, according to a fireman.

Pacifica firemen first received notice of the blaze from the San Francisco Fire Department. A second call came from Miss McLaine.

Described as a "hot fire," it caused heavy smoke damage throughout the house, while destroying the bedroom floor and all the furnishings. Flames burned through the sheetrock walls, as well.

Mrs. Ledbetters is in the east, attending a family wedding, a fire department source indicated. Miss McLaine was watching the youngsters — two of whom are foster children — while her mother remained at the nearby McLain residence.

S.S.F. Woman Is Injured

A young South San Francisco woman was injured Sunday night in an automobile accident at the intersection of Arroyo Drive and Cuesesca Street, police reported.

Kathleen Carlson, 18, of 3725 Callan Boulevard, was taken to Kaiser Hospital for treatment of leg injuries after the accident occured at 11:25 p.m.

Officers said Miss Carlson was a passenger in a vehicle driven by Brad Conner of Chico.

Conner's vehicle collided with another car driven by Robert C. Simonson of San Bruno, according to police reports.

S.F. Jail

Full Security Said Nearly Impossible

Total security at the San Francisco County Jail near San Bruno is "almost an impossibility," Sheriff Matthew C. Carberry told members of a San Francisco Supervisors' committee Thursday.

The sheriff acknowledged that the jail was built and staffed for minimum security, not for the confinement of hardened criminals.

Both the cities of Pacifica and San Bruno, whose lands abut the jail facility, have demanded the city and county of San Francisco increase the jail's security.

Basis for the most recent complaints from the residents and civic leaders of the two north San Mateo County communities was the slaying of an elderly person and the assault of another in Pacifica last June.

Escapees from the jail are being held in connection with those in that case.

Carberry, in outlining problems to the supervisorial fire, safety and police committee, urged alteration of the facility to maximum security.

He talked of a need for vertical bars on certain floors of the jail, at an estimated cost of $30,000.

Last June's terror marked the first time in memory, Carberry said, that escapees had been involved in serious violence.

Some 250,000 prisoners have gone through the jail in San Mateo County, he said, with ten escapees during 1967-68 and 16 in 1968-69.

Youth, 13 Is Charged With Theft

A 13-year-old San Bruno youth was arrested Thursday after he assertedly admitted to police he had taken $180 in cash and $250 in checks from a San Bruno shop over a three-day period.

The youngster, police said, first walked into the store last Thursday, giving proprietors the indication he was going to shine shoes. At the end of the day, about $60 was missing.

On Friday and the Monday after, it was the same thing, so a trap was set by the owners and the police, since it was assumed the lad would be returning.

Thursday, he did. Once the boy was inside, the front door was locked. But, somewhere along the way—perhaps he found the door locked behind him; maybe, he earlier had seen police cars in the area, though some distance away—the boy got wise.

He attempted to exit through a rear door, but he was apprehended.

Police said he admitted taking the money from the store's cash register, destroying the checks spending the cash.

Nothing was recovered. He said he had treated a friend to a helicopter ride, purchased a phonograph and a radio with the money.

Police said a charge of burglary against the lad, who was released to the custody of his mother, is pending from two weeks ago.

San Bruno Man Is Found Dead

Ward Francis Dillon, 3621 Sunset Drive, San Bruno, was found dead Sunday of a gunshot wound, apparently self-inflicted.

San Bruno police said the victim was found, by members of his family, sprawled on his back across his bed, a rifle positioned upright against the bed and held between his legs.

D.C. Employes Have 'Most' Holiday Time

The weather in Daly City may not be great, but city employes have more time off than most other cities to enjoy the fog that almost daily creeps in on little cat's paws.

Most of the nation's cities give their employes 11 days off annually.

Daly City blesses them with 12 holidays, including Labor Day, Admission Day, Memorial Day, Columbus Day, Fourth of July, Veterans' Day, Thanksgiving, one-half day before Christmas and Christmas Day, one-half day before New Year's and New Year's Day, and Good Friday between the hours of 1-3 p.m.

To make it an even dozen, the City Fathers give "Anybody" their birthday off and every Sunday — providing they are not on emergency call.

And if a holiday falls on a Saturday, the employes are given Friday off. For holidays that happen to crop up on Sunday they get Monday off.

Final Spindrift Casting for Play

Final castings for the Pacifica Spindrift Players' 1969-70 season opener will be held Wednesday and Thursday, at 7:30 p.m. in Odcstad Center, Crespi Drive, Pacifica.

The name of the play is "Portrait in Black" and was written by Ivan Goff and Ben Roberts.

The entire action of the play takes place in the Bay Area, with much of the Peninsula area, particularly Pacifica and Devil's Slide areas, featured.

Of particular interest to localites, should be the fact that the Hollywood version of this play was filmed on location in this area, and that many of the movie's cast and crew stayed at Nick's Motel Complex in Rockaway Beach. The film starred Lana Turner.

Parts open include three female roles in ages twenties, thirties, and forties or older. Five males are featured including a ten-year old boy. Other persons are needed for stage crews.

Aubrey Lumley, director of the production states that no pre-casting will take place and all roles are still open. The cast will be chosen after the final tryout session, thus persons who have not had an opportunity to try out will still have an equal chance.

The murder mystery will open October 10th and play Fridays and Saturdays for three weekends.

Miss Carlos, Michael Breton Wed

Karen Lee Carlos and Michael Thomas Breton recently exchanged marriage vows at the Millbrae Community Methodist Church. The Rev. Donald Schilling, Michael's cousin, officiated at the ceremony.

Karen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carlos of Millbrae, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white organza and reembroidered Alencon lace with an Empire bodice and a high neckline.

Mrs. Kathleen Wilkin and Elaine Daley preceded Karen down the aisle as honor attendants, and the bridesmaids were Bonnie Hakin, Yvonne Senn and Lynett Carlos, cousin of the bride. They wore linen gowns in rainbow shades with standup collars of eyelet lace which extended down the front of the gowns.

Lori Dawn Schilling was the flower girl.

Bob Breton stood with his brother as best man. Both are the sons of Mrs. Ruth G. Breton of Millbrae and Howard W. Breton of San Francisco. Michael asked Ron Nevell, Dick Sabin, Bob Schauer and Keith Carlos, Karen's brother, to usher.

The couple met their guests at Brentwood Lodge. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. William Haag and Mr. and Mrs. Antone Carlos, all of San Francisco, Karen's grandparents, and Mrs. Ella Glynn of Vacaville and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gates of Walnut Creek, Michael'l grandparents.

The couple honeymooned in Canada.

DATEBOOK
Louanne Heath

Gail Ross is a hard working positive type of young person who can't quite fathom why her high school chose to honor her, simply because she obtained good grades and enjoyed her four years at Terra Nova!

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ross of Arguella Boulevard in Pacifica, Gail has spent an exciting summer in Hawaii and is now preparing to enter College of San Mateo to study accounting. Ultimately, she hopes to complete her education at one of the state colleges and then become a certified public accountant. Because, as she puts it:

"I enjoy bookkeeping very much and like working with figures that come out to a positive answer."

Gail has a positive opinion about the current dissention that is rocking high school and college campuses, too.

"I feel that students feel that they are entitled to more voice in the education they are receiving. Racial prejudice, of course, started a large part of the problem but it is minor now. The solution to a large part of the trouble would be more compromising on demands made," Gail noted.

"Planning for the future is one of the most difficult problems facing the teenage boy. He is unable to make any definite plans because of the knowledge that he will be drafted into the army if he is unable to continue his education, and maybe even if he is.

"I sympathize with boys just leaving high school knowing that they will, sooner or later, have to fight in a war they have no voice in, and they may possibly die in it.

"Both teenage boys and girls have a big adjustment facing them after graduation. They are thrown into an adult world which most are not prepared for," Gail concluded.

While Gail worked most of the time she was in high school, and so did not have too much time for extra curricular activities, she has packed a lot of fun and excitement into this past summers schedule. She and two girl friends trekked to the islands taking only their sleeping bags and what items they could carry in their back packs and for the month of July they hiked and explored and met hundreds of new people.

Getting to know people is one of Gail's chief enjoyments, in fact she rates getting to know people as the highlight of her school career to date.

"Your whole life is meeting people and getting along with them and school, for me, was a very sociable time," she said."

"I think I'll miss the kids at school most. There are a lot of them going away to college or to work who I probably won't see again," she observed pensively.

Another person she will miss will be David Campbell who teaches humanities at Terra Nova. Campbell ranks as Gail's favorite teacher.

"He enjoys teaching and enjoys working and doing things with all the kids and he goes out of his way to make class enjoyable for you," she explained.

Though her favorite teacher taught humanities, Gail found her most exciting discovery in high school was classical music.

"I was introduced to classical music the last year of high school and I learned to appreciate it through my study.

"Most teenagers never have the opportunity to really listen to classical music and so they frown on it, mostly because of their lack of understanding.

"I hope to take another course in classical music and art in college and I know I will always be able to enjoy listening to classical music and to recognize paintings, which is a valuable asset," she explained.

North County Couple Is Wed

All Souls Catholic Church in South San Francisco was the setting for Saturday's marriage of Kathleen M. Roden and Charles H. Phillips.

Msgr. Eugene Gallagher conducted the 2 p.m. ceremony before an altar banked with gladioli arranged in baskets. The House of Lawton in San Francisco was the reception site.

Kathleen, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Roden Sr. of South San Francisco, walked down the aisle with her father. She wore an Empire, A-line gown of organza over peau de soie appliqued with Venetian lace. The gown featured long lace sleeves and a train of peau de soie, organza and lace.

Two organza roses with lillies of the valley secured her elbow-length veil, and she carried Eucharist lilies, phalaenopsis orchids and lilies of the valley.

Empire, A-line gowns of ottoman cloth with white bodices, turquoise skirts and daisy trim were chosen by the attendants. They carried daisies in natural wood baskets and wore daisy headpieces in their hair.

Rose Ann Roden was her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Pat Phillips, sister of the benedict, Jeanene Ryan, Kathleen Connolly, Joan Petrocchi and Robin Kotta.

Lori Bartok, cousin of the bride and her godchild, and Lisa Bartok, another cousin, were the flower girls in white ottoman cloth frocks with turquoise trim. They carried white daisies tipped with blue in natural baskets.

Wayne Phillips was his brother's best man. Both are the sons of Charles E. Phillips of Pacifica and the late Mrs. Phillips. Ushering duties fell to Jim, Mike and Louie Roden, brothers of the bride, and Bill Borelli and Bilyl Phillips, brother of the benedict.

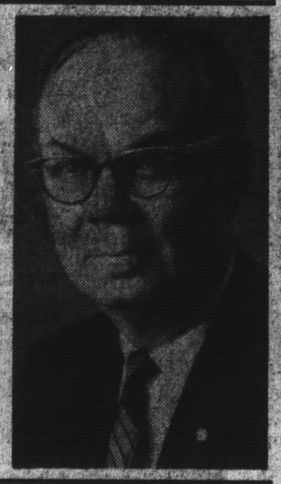
Mrs. Roden received guests in a beige and gold brocade coat and dress with beige accessories. She pinned on beige and green cymbidiums.

After a honeymoon trip to Las Vegas and Los Angeles, the couple will live in Burlingame.

The couple both were graduated from South San Francisco High School, and Kathleen was graduated from the College of San Mateo.

Among the wedding guests was Mrs. Clara Bartok of South San Francisco, grandmother of the bride.

HAROLD K. GRAVES, of Mill Valley, new district Rotary governor, will visit the Daly City Rotary Club at 12:15 p.m. August 27 at International Joe's. Dr. Graves, president of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary since 1952 and a Rotarian for ten years, will meet with club president Stan Cohen, secretary Max Kurtz and other officers before the regular meeting to review the club's plans and projects.



Pacifca Rec Department Outlines Coming Projects

Andy Siebert has been conducting a kind of encounter between people and acrylics sponsored by the Pacifica Park, Beach and Recreation Department. All those involved have had such a fine time that Adny's doin' it again! The Fall class, open to the new and old painters, will begin again in October.

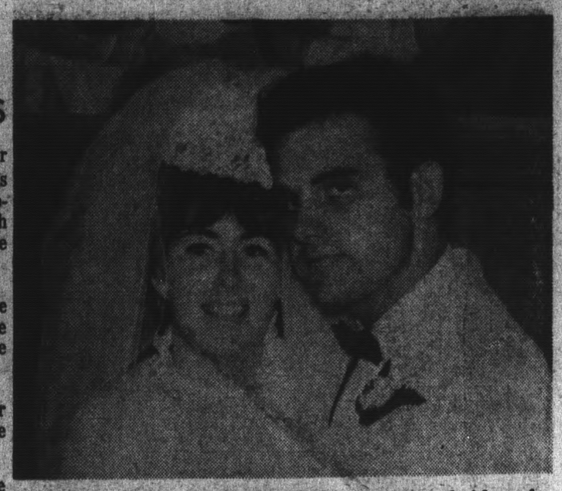
The Department and many 3½ to 5-year-olds are looking for a pre-school teacher to lead them in arts and crafts, games, dramatics, storytelling, dramatics, special events, and understanding.

Since little girls have had the benefit of ballet and creative dance, the department has decided to combine an exercise and dancing class for bigger girls — 16 and over. The class will start the first part of October in the evening to stretch out, reach out, and take in the pleasures of dance.

All Teen Programs will be closed for the remainder of the summer since schools must be cleaned.

Pat Ostovar is planning for another class in Intermediate Bridge to begin in October.

Final spash-downs will take place at the Terra Nova pool, August 22. The swimming classes, sponsored by the Park, Beach and Recreation Department, have been successful, as have those warm Pacifica summer days due to a cool pool.



LINDA ELAINE RAYMOND became bride of Charles Wesley Herren in a recent ceremony at the Episcopal Church of St. Matthew in San Mateo. They traveled to Palm Springs and are living in San Mateo. Linda is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Ross Raymond of Millbrae, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eugene Herren of Burlingame.

Club Wins Fiesta Award

The Daly City Garden Club participated in San Mateo County Fair and Floral Fiesta, placing a garden in the amateur section, themed "A Garden of Reverence," on which they received second prize.

Designer of the garden was John K. Fern, and was laid out by C. F. Rockey, club president and Mrs. Rockey, W. Braas and Mrs. J. K. Fern.

Several members placed entries in potted plant section and cut flowers and received many ribbons.

J. P. Hargrove received sweepstakes award on Cut Flowers, for having won the most blue ribbons in that section.

Daly City Garden Club is planning its own flower show, to be held September 13 and 14 at the First Western Bank and Trust Company, 30 Westlake Court.

Second Skyline Student Unit Meeting Today

The second meeting involving future Skyline College students planning the college's first student government and activities will be held today, at 7 p.m. in the college's administration building, Joaquin "Babe" Herrero, dean of men and student activities, announced.

"This will be the first evening session and we hope that those persons who were unable to attend our initial meeting will be there. In fact, we cordially invite and urge all interested students to come to this meeting," the college dean declared.

During the past weeks those students who were at the first gathering have been working in various committees in planning the future activies for the Bay Area's newest community college.

Crafts Projects Are Displayed At H. Liebes

Projects which have been completed by children participating in the summer crafts program of the Daly City Recreation Department, are now on display at the H. Leibes in Westlake Shopping Center.

Under the direction of Bunnie Gregoire, the children have created an array of articles in paper mache, sketching, mosaics, exploratory craft, and pupperty.

Children participating in the program range from seven years of age to 13 years old. Projects were selected and completed on an individual basis. The public has been invited to view the projects, on display until August 28.

Weight Problem? Call Tops Club

The Linda Mar Tops Club meets on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. at St.Peter's Church in Linda Mar.

All interested women who have a weight problem are invited to hear speakers give hints on self-improvement.

Contests are held to try and give motivation to stay on a diet. The Tops Club does not give out any diets; they must be obtained from the member's doctor.

The group's Summer Queen contest is underway: The woman losing the most weight by September 15 will win a hairpiece.

Anyone who wants more information about the club may call Mrs. Shirley Mounts in Pacifica.

Members of the Crystal Springs Chapter of B'nai B'rith Women and their offspring will be on the runway Thursday morning when the chapter presents "Horoscope of Fashion," an adult-children's fashion show and luncheon. Among those participating in the event, which will start at 11 a.m. at Brentwood Lodge in South San Francisco, will be (from left) Dana Boyd, Cary Beck, Mrs. Kenneth Negin, Mrs. Dan Boyd, and Mrs. David Glassel. Radio personality Chet Casselman will describe the clothes from Lundy's and Melarts. Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Stanley Scolnick are chairmen of the event. Reservations may be made through either Mrs. Scolnick, who lives in San Mateo, or Mrs. Ben Berman of Pacifica. (Post Photo)

Veal Recipe With Taste, Eye Appeal

GOOD MORNING, good cooks.

How would you like a delightful and delicious recipe for veal scaloppine today? This recipe comes from my friend, Mrs. Phyllis Checchettini, who lives in San Francisco and is an excellent cook and generous recipe sharer. This recipe has taste appeal and eye appeal, too, and is really quite easy to make.

VEAL SCALOPPINE

1½ lbs. veal, cut very thin
1 teaspoon salt
1 teas. paprika
1 teas. prepared mustard
½ cup salad oil
¼ cup lemon juice
1 clove garlic, chopped fine
¼ teaspoon nutmeg

Combine the teaspoon each salt, paprika and prepared mustard, the half cup oil, one-fourth cup lemon juice, minced clove garlic and one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg. Pour over the pound and half of veal and marinate for 15 minutes.

Lift the veal from the marinade (save the marinade), and flour, brown in hot oil. Place browned veal in a baking dish and add the following:

1 medium onion, sliced thin
1 green pepper, sliced in strips
1 cup chicken bouillion

Place the sliced onion and green pepper on the veal and combine the cup of bouillion with the marinade and pour over all. Cover and bake in 350-degree oven for 40 minutes.

While the veal is baking, clean and slice a quarter-pound of mushrooms and brown in butter. Slice six pimiento olives, crosswise.

Five minutes before the cooking time for the veal is finished, add the browned mushrooms and the sliced pimiento olives. Return to oven for last five minutes.

Serve with hot rice or noodles.

YEARS AGO Phyllis gave me this recipe for Biscotti, a dry cookie that is delicious and keeps well. These cookies are great served with a glass of wine or as an accompaniment to a fruit compote for dessert. We love them with coffee. So you can see they are a very accommodating cookie.

BISCOTTI

½ cup butter
1 cup sugar
3 eggs
3 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon anise flavoring
1 cup almonds, chopped

Cream the half cup butter and the 1 cup sugar. Add the three eggs one at a time, beat well. Sift together the 3 cups flour, three teaspoons baking powder and half teaspoon salt. Add to the creamed mixture. Stir in the teaspoon anise flavoring and the cup of almonds. (This makes a very stiff dough.)

Turn the dough onto a floured board and knead until smooth. Divide dough in half. Form into rolls the length of a cookie sheet. Place on lightly greased cookie sheet and bake in 350-degree oven for 30 minutes or until lightly browned. Remove from oven and cut into three-fourths inch slices while still hot. Place the slices, cut side down, on cookie sheet. Return to oven for 10 minutes to brown lightly and dry out.

THESE NEXT COOKIES are completely different in shape, texture and method of baking from the biscotti, and will appeal to you who prefer a sweeter, more moist cookie.

PENUCHE SQUARES

¼ cup margarine
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 package semi-sweet chocolate bits (6 oz. size)
½ cup chopped nuts

Melt the one-fourth cup margarine and beat in the cup brown sugar. Cool slightly. Add the egg and the half teaspoon vanilla and beat until mixture is light and fluffy. Sift together the one cup flour, one teaspoon baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon salt and add to creamed mixture. Mix well.

Lightly stir in the chocolate bits and half cup nuts and spread the mixture evenly in oiled 8-inch square pan. Bake in 350-degree oven for 25 to 30 minutes. Do not overbake. Cool and cut into 1-inch squares.

Flordelis Maranon And Reynaldo Reyes Married

The Catholic Church of the Epiphany in San Francisco was the setting for the recent marriage of Flordelis y Maranon of the Philippines and Reynaldo M. Reyes of Daly City.

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Maranon, was attended by Rosalinda M. Travis as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Rose Lou M. Travis, Sonita N. Miguelino and Potenciana G. de Jesus. Christina Poblete and Ana Marie Buco were flower girls.

Jesse M. Ybanez escorted his cousin to the altar.

Conrado Mangapit Jr. acted as best man for Reynaldo, the son of Dr. Rosenda de Reyes of Daly City. Ushers were Benjamin C. Icasiano and Gervacio R. Trias. Gus Poblete carried the rings.

Principal sponsors for the couple were Judge Rafael Ybanez, Dr. Rodelfo Duterte, Eusebio Magpale, Minda Maderazo, Anita Gonzales and Mrs. Corazon Javier.

Susan DuMont And Robert Cardinale Wed

St. Robert's Church in San Bruno was the setting for the recent marriage of Susan Du Mont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. DuMont Jr. of San Bruno, and Robert J. Cardinale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Cardinale of San Francisco.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the American Legion Hall.

The bride wore a white linen dress with lace flowers on the bodice while her maid of honor, Cheryl Hjelle of Millbrae, wore apricot linen. Yellow linen dresses were chosen by the four bridesmaids — Lynn St. Clair of Millbrae, Sandy Lindareno of Burlingame, Linda Harrington of Millbrae, and Sandra Cardinale of Pacifica, cousin of the bridegroom. Another cousin, Debra Cardinale of South San Francisco, was the flower girl.

Robert asked Raymond Harp of San Francisco to be his best man and ushering duties were shared by Mark Belieu of San Bruno, Paul Coccellato of San Francisco, Steve Leianic of Millbrae, and Chuck Gretton of San Francisco.

Ronald DuMont, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The couple honeymooned in Carmel before returning to live in San Bruno.

The bride attended Capuchino High School, the College of San Mateo, and Bay City College. Her bridegroom attended Sacred Heart High School and City College of San Francisco and is now in the San Francisco Police Academy.

Recreational Area Plea Is Rejected

A petition signed by some 50 residents of the Knowles Avenue area of Daly City, asking the city to block off two streets in the deserted BARTD station area for the summer, has been rejected by the city.

The petitioners want the streets for recreational purposes, such as playing ball and riding small bicycles, for their children who presently must go several blocks to Marchbanks Park to play — or play in heavily trafficked neighborhood streets.

The only users of the streets in the 13-acre BARTD station area are a scattering of private cars and vehicles of the Yellow Cab Company, which recently moved to an office building on the corner of Junipero Serra Boulevard and Knowles Avenue.

Although BARTD owns the land in the area, Daly City maintains control of the streets. Before any structure can be built on the site the city must agree to close and abandon all streets.

This was the basis for rejecting the petition, City Manager Dave Rowe explained.

In a carefully worded letter to every petitioner, former City Manager Edward Frank said his office had studied the matter, including any legal ramifications.

"If the city were to close the suggested portions of street and discontinue traffic use, the property would abandon and revert to the adjoining property owner (BARTD).

"Until all the problems with BARTD have been resolved, the city attorney recommends no action be taken," Frank explained in turning down the request.

The petition was first handed to Recreation Director Chuck Vincent who, in turn, handed it over to City Manager Edward Frank.

In short, city officials fear that closing down any road in the BARTD station area during current discussions on the proposed station might lead to legal opinions whereby the city would lose its only "ace in the hole" in the matter — power to abandon streets.

As long as Daly City holds power of these streets, BARTD cannot proceed with construction without going into a long, legal and costly court hassel.

SPL-4 RANDY CHALMERS, whose parents reside at 162 Crocker Avenue, Daly City, returned from Vietnam August 4. He was serving with the 4th Infantry Division 56th Artillery in Pleiku. During the bombing of Pleiku on May 8, Randy was wounded. He has received the Bronze Star and the Purple Heart. He is on leave until September 1 and will then return to Fort Bliss, Tex. for future assignment. His brother Gary is still in Vietnam serving with the 3rd Marine Division at Quang Tri.

Trio Caught After Station Is Held Up

A trio of armed gunmen were apprehended shortly after they held up a Broadmoor service station and fled with $68 early Sunday morning.

Daly City police officer J. Mendiara spotted the suspects fleeing toward San Francisco on the Junipero Serra Freeway within minutes after receiving the bulletin on the holdup.

He succeeded in halting the car and arresting its occupants about 3:30 a.m.

A service station attendant at Larry Day's Texaco station, 1690 Sullivan Avenue, told police the trio pulled into the station, brandished weapons and demanded all the cash available.

Arrested on charges of armed robbery were James H. Lieb, 28; James E. McDonald, 28 (both suspects refused to give police their addresses); and Thomas Guerrero, 28, of San Francsco.

Child Hurt On Bicycle

A South San Francisco child was hospitalized with a broken leg Friday after an automobile struck his unlighted bicycle at the intersection of California Street and Cypress Avenue.

Police said Harlin Richard Ray, 9, of 827 Hemlock Street, was injured in the accident at 9:25 p.m. He was taken to Kaiser Hospital.

Officers said Ray was following another child on another bicycle without a light when he rode into the intersection.

Driver of the automobile was Petros I. Panaresis, 40, of South San Francisco.

Check Given Daly City For Training

The State Commission on Police Officer Standards and Training last week presented Daly City with a check for $1,182.40 as its share of the 1969 allocation from the California Peace Officers' Training Fund.

The presentation was made by South San Francisco police chief John Fabbri, a member of the State Commission, to Daly City Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett.

Daly City qualified for the money by adhering to the standards for section and training of peace officers prescribed in the administrative and penal codes of the State.

The county's second largest city trains their police personnel at the College of San Mateo, which meets the standards required of commission certified peace officer training facilities.

The Peace Officers Standards and Training Program has been in operation since October 1960.

During that period, cities and counties which met or exceeded the standards have trained more than 23,000 officers and have received a total of $7,950,000 in reimbursements from the fund.

The fund receives its revenue from assessments on fines collected by local courts and forwarded to the State Treasurer. The assessments are often referred to as a "use tax," with only law violators paying the bill.

Daly City Youth Is Booked On Charge of Burglary

A 19-year-old Daly City youth was booked into City Jail last Friday on suspicion of burglarizing Barry's Chevron Service Station at 4300 Callan Boulevard.

Police said Dennis McHugh, 216 North Mayfair Avenue, and an unidentified accomplice were seen by San Francisco Housing Authority Officer Bill Palmer inside the station after it had closed for the night.

Palmer told police he was on his way home around 1 a.m. when he spotted the suspects inside the station and stopped to investigate.

One of the youths jumped through a rear window and fled the area on foot.

McHugh was apprehended as he tried to leave the building, police said.

Fire Sweeps Gas Station

A service station in Pacifica was damaged Wednesday in a fire which began in a lubrication room, authorities reported.

Firemen said the blaze began about 10 p.m. when "flammable liquid" on the floor of the lube room at the Crespi Shell Station, 590 Crespi Drive, burst into flames.

Though the fire was confined to the lubrication room, a number of tires and a quantity of motor oil were consumed, firemen said. Smoke damage to the metal building was also heavy.

Fire Damages S.S.F. School: Chief Considers It Arson

Fire that officials believe was deliberately set caused an estimated $15,000-$20,000 damage to a junior high school facility still under construction in South San Francisco.

The band room of the Westborough School was heavily damaged, but the flames were halted before they could break through to an adjoining multi-purpose room.

South San Francisco Fire Chief John Marchi was definite about the cause of the 4:15 p.m. Sunday blaze:

"Somebody set it on fire."

The chief said he was continuing his investigation on the basis the blaze at Westborough Avenue and Callan Drive was a case of arson.

The multi-purpose room is nearly completed, Marchi explained, and had the fire extended to there, "It would have been a half-a-million-dollar fire."

Additionally, the chief praised the work of his department.

"The boys did a good job. It could have been a very, very expensive fire," he noted.

The school is built of wood sheeting, with a cedar shingle roof and the fire started in the back of the band room, Marchi said, and extended up the wall into the roof area, igniting some shingles.

The fire, described as "very hot and very smoky," had been smouldering and burning for some time before it melted plastic windows and became evident from the outside for the first time, Marchi declared.

The weather was clear and there was not the usual wind.

San Brunan Is Robbed

The Burlingame home of a San Bruno auto mechanic was robbed of $865.95 worth of personal belongings Wednesday, police were told.

Harold B. O'Brien, 743 El Camino Real, called police when he arrived home from work at 5:30 and found the place ransacked.

Someone had entered with a passkey, or else slipped the lock, police said, because there was no sign of forced entry.

D.C. Planners Delay Vote On Station, Car Wash

The Daly City Planning Commission August 12 held over two use permit applications pending final action on zone changes from R-3 to C-1 on the parcels.

Both applications deal with R-3 zoned property in the Serramonte-Kellert Boulevard area.

One use permit request was filed by Micheal DeBernardi for construction of a car wash and the other for construction of an Atlantic-Richfield service station.

Both operations will use the same entrances and exits, in order to alleviate traffic snarls on the increasingly busy thoroughfare, the commissioners were told.

Daly City Councilman DeBernardi presented the use permit application on behalf of his son. A representative from the Atlantic-Richfield Company was also present to explain his company's position in the matter.

The action, had the commission approved the permits, might have been premature inasmuch as the public hearing on the zone change was closed Monday and the council has not had sufficient time to follow through on all necessary procedures for zone change.

City Planner John Walker informed the commissioners that the area has been recommended for zone change in accordance with the General Plan and recommended listening to the application, although the zone changt has not been approved as yet.

Walker felt the area "will, in fact" become a C-1 zoned area within the time limit stipulated in the law and informed the commission that the use permits could be discussed at their September 10 meeting.

In other action, the commission:

Approved the withdrawl of a use permit application filed by Federal Sign Company to install an illuminated non-moving, non-flashing sign on the new Bekins Van & Storage building at 98 Hyde Court in a C-1 and C-2 zoned area.

The commission forced the withdrawl of Federal Sign representative Charles Sutton after informing him that the height of the sign would exceed the 36 foot maximum.

The total height of the sign would have been 44 feet above ground level.

Actually, the sign itself is only ten feet high, the building is responsible for the remainder.

Stores' New Policies On Magazines

Q.F.I., Lucky, Safeway and many other stores in Northern California have adopted policies on the selection and stocking of magazines. The policies are adopted to eliminate objectionable printed material.

Typical of the policies adopted is that of Safeway which has unequivocally stated: "Magazines consistently catering to articles of a sensational, obscene or pornographic nature will not be stocked."

Individual store managers are free to remove any issue of any magazine which in their judgment contains objectionable pictures or text and to notify the distributor to pick up all copies for full credit.

George Walsh (Portola), Donald Passarelli (Sanchez), Warren Twitchell (San Andreas), Mrs. Alberta Freitas (Vallemar), and Mrs. Ingrid Lacy (Westview).

In the coastside school district, assistant principals serve full-time in the classrooms in the K-6 schools, and one-half time in classroom assignments in the K-8 schools.

Beck, Hollis, Krassner, Maytham, Passarelli, and Sundberg are all newly appointed in this instructional leadership position, while the other nine teaching assistant principals served in this capacity during the last school year.

In addition, fifteen community members will be employed for the forthcoming school year as secretaries in the elementary schools of the Laguna Salada school district.

These vital positions as secretaries and receptionists are essential to the smooth-running operation of the school, and include the performance of a variety of responsible clerical work, assistance to the pirncipal by relieving him of clerical details, and other related work

Enrollment Conducted By Coast Women

The Pacifica Chapter of the Women of the Moose No. 1595 had an enrollment August 13 for charter members unable to attend the Institution and Enrollment of Chapter last month.

Mrs. Hilda Emerine, College of Regents, Sunnyvale Chapter No. 1283 was guest speaker and told the new members about Mooseheart.

Senior Citizens Law Filing Deadline

Filing deadline for 1969 Senior Citizens porperty tax assistance claims is October 15, Ross Conti, tax collector - treasurer, reminded San Mateo County taxpayers.

The Senior Citizens law provides for reimbursement of a portion of property taxes for persons who are over 65 years of age, own and occupy their homes, have paid their property taxes, and have a total household income of $3,350 or less.

Last year some 58,000 claimants were paid almost $8 million under this program, Conti said, and the average amount of assistance was $135.

Senior Citizens assistance is in addition to the $70 homeowners property tax relief payment, Conti said, and should not be confused with that program. Persons who are over 65 years of age and who can otherwise meet the qualifications of the Senior Citizens program are entitled to receive the benefits of both programs.

This means that a qualified Senior Californian could receive the $70 homeowners relief and still get an additional check for up to 95 per cent of the balance of his taxes from the Senior Citizens program.

Qualified individuals can obtain forms from any office of the Franchise Tax Board or by writing to Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento.

Westmoor Class Schedules To Be Mailed to Students

Westmoor class schedules for the 1969-1970 school year will be mailed to the students' homes the last week in August, according to Margaret Riggs, Assistant Principal - Guidance for Westmoor.

Some students will come first through seventh periods or 7:45 a.m. to 2 p.m., while others will be in attendance second through eighth periods or 8:39 a.m. to 2:55 p.m. Students will not be able to change the time schedule, as they were given the schedules based on the availability of their selected classes.

Students who need to change their programs because of classes taken in summer school or whose programs are in error, should call Westmoor High to make an appointment with their respective counselor. The counselors will be available to make only program error and summer - school - necessitated changes on Thursday, September 4, but the student must have an appointment.

Students, new to the district, are encouraged to telephone the school for an appointment now. Those students can be scheduled into classes at the present time and receive their schedules before school commences on September 10.

All students new to Westmoor are invited to the school's annual Orientation Assembly in the Boys' Gym on Thursday, September 4 at 8:30 a.m.

Wrong Name Last Week

Daly City Fireman Eugene Klingler represented a group of 33 firemen discontented with the new city holiday work schedules at a city council meeting August 11, not Eungee Gernstrand as had been reported.

Gernstrand was one of the signers of a petition asking the city to re-evaluate the matter, however, Kingler made the actual presentation.

Expanded Bail Program By County to Be Studied

The Board of Supervisors has taken under study a recommendation for an expanded bail system which has had some success as a pilot program in San Mateo County this year.

Known as the ROR project (Release on Own Recognizance), it has kept some 147 persons out of the County jail during a six-month trial period.

Since the average length of stay in the County jail is four to six weeks, this has made possible a savings of 5,000 man-days in terms of taxpayer expense for room and board, and has offered some relief from the jail crowding problem, County Manager M. D. Tarshes told the board.

The project got started in January with six VISTA volunteers under the supervision of the Legal Aid Society assisted by additional volunteers from Stanford University Law School.

Between January and June, the volunteers interviewed a total of 608 persons in the jail, recommending a total of 253 people for release without bail. The courts approved 147 releases and only two defendants skipped a court appearance intentionally, Tarshes said.

Five other defendants missed one of the 212 scheduled appearances, but the problems were corrected the next day.

This gives a judge an alternative to the traditional system which permits release based solely on the ability to provide bail money.

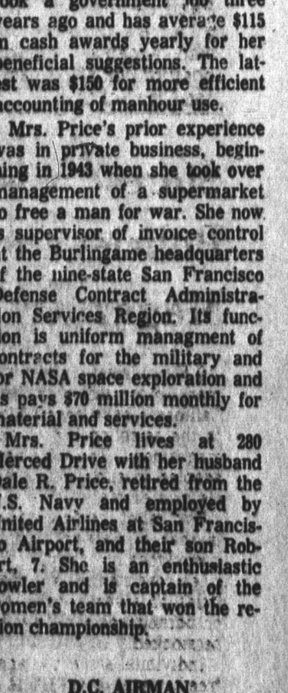
Prudential Sales Honor To Bezazian

Michael Bezazian, special agent for the Prudential Insurance Company in this area, was honored in Miami Beach, Fla., at the firm's President's Club Conference for his outstanding sales achievement during 1968.

Last year for the seventh consecutive year Bezazian placed and serviced more than $1 million of insurance, which makes him a leader among the top one per cent of 24,000 Prudential underwriters in the United States and Canada.

This accomplishment also qualifies Bezazian, for the sixth consecutive year, as a life member of the Million Dollar Round Table, a group which encompasses the top one and a half per cent of all life insurance agents in the world.

Bezazian resides in Burlingame with his wife, Sue, and an eight-year-old daughter, Lee Ann.



SP/4 DON SERINI, husband of Camille Serini of Daly City returned home last week for discharge after a one year tour of Vietnam. While in Vietnam, Serini was assigned to the 512th Transportation Battalion, U.S. Army. His parents, Aladeno and Angela Serini reside at 1 Longview Drive, Daly City.

Mrs. Price Wins Cash

Mrs. Doris Price of San Bruno took a government job three years ago and has average $115 in cash awards yearly for her beneficial suggestions. The latest was $150 for more efficient accounting of manhour use.

She now is supervisor of invoice control at the Burlingame headquarters of the nine-state San Francisco Defense Contract Administration Services Region. Its function is uniform managment of contracts for the military and for NASA space exploration and its pays $70 million monthly for material and services.

Mrs. Price lives at 280 Merced Drive with her husband Dale R. Price, retired from the U.S. Navy and employed by United Airlines at San Francisco Airport, and their son Robert, 7. She is an enthusiastic bowler and is captain of the women's team that won the region championship.

Daly City Sees Revenue Source

ONE OF THE MAJOR points being discussed by the local higherups is "what can BARTD do for us?" Will it attract new revenues or assist in the tax base of the city? To most questions asked by these City Fathers the answer is "no" or, at best, "doubtful."

But Mayor Bud Lycett has a pocket answer — an answer that BARTD would just as soon not hear! Lycett wants to take over the parking concession as a source of revenue for Daly City. The city would build, maintain and collect all those juicy monies coming in with each vehicle. The "take" is estimated to be in the $$$.

The station is still not settled. The last letter from BARTD Genteral Manager Bill Stokes informed Lycett the matter was settled as far as he was concerned and a draft agreement has been sent to Daly City. Nothing yet, except exasperating moans from D.C.

A BARTD spokesman optimistically predicted the matter would be signed and sealed within two weeks. Wanna bet?

MISSION METER MADNESS—Yet another survey is being conducted along the entire Daly City length of Mission street, this time by Mission Merchants president Tom Stanghalini. He wants a "firsthand" look at exactly what's going on after listening to the bitter dispute between two Mission street factions last week.

Outcome of the latest meter survey will probably be revealed at next week's regular council session. Odds are that merchants in the 6800-6900 block of the shopping street will be spared the dreadful coin eaters in front of their establishments.

WHATEVER HAPPENED to the new Bay bridge crossing between Sierra Point (near the end of Guadalupe Canyon Parkway) and the East Bay. You know, the one that Assemblyman Leo Ryan kept pushing for the past two years. Instead, the State has decided to build that bridge between India Basin and Alameda. And Ryan told us newsmen it wouldn't be done!

FLASHY FLASH—Our rumor machine just came forth with today's hottest rumor: Rev. Howard Bryant will soon step down, vacating the post he has held as head of the Daly City Information and Referral Center for the past two-plus years. The dynamic Bryant has boosted the causes of the city's needy, work help programs and under-privileged since assuming the leadership of the center. Hope our machine is wrong!

COMMODORE JAMES V. GREALISH (he's the only one in the U.S. Navy) recently set out for Hawaii with two destroyers under his command as part of the Navy Reserves' Summer Training Program. From the outset things went wrong. One of his men, a 58-year old seaman, died of a heart attack on the dock while loading his gear aboard. And less than 500 miles out of San Francisco a water evaporator on one of the ships went out.

The ships returned to San Francisco, had the water evaporator repaired and went to San Diego, instead of Hawaii for gunnery practice. To the best of our limited knowledge, the destroyer to head down the coast to San Diego ended up on a Pacifica beach.

POLITICAL RING—As the days grow shorter and time for filing for the upcoming Assembly race grows near, odds are coming on fast that former muni judge Paul Hupf will announce he is throwing his Republican hat into the primary race. Watch for a statement early in September.

THE WESTBRAE PLAN isn't dead yet. Although City Planners reject the idea of putting up multi-storied apartment buildings on the three-plus acre site at the stub end of Westbrae Avenue, the matter will again come up before the Daly City Council. The last time the planners turned the matter down, the council voted (split 4-1) to send it back for re-study.

A Lost Art

"Tap dancing is a lost art, like temple carving," Anthony Teague told me over a succulent repast at Coffee Cantata.

You'd think a revival would be effected to see this terpsichorean wizard go through his staccato balancing and twirling act in "Dames At Sea," nightly at the hungry i theatre. Having retired from professional dancing at the age of 19 to become a straight actor, what was the first role he got but "West Side Story" where he had to dance as well as act.

Tony changed his name from Scooter after he completed 700 performances on Broadway in "110 In The Shade."

"I didn't think it would sound too sharp when I reached the age of 40."

A native of Jacksboro, Tex. (4,000 population), Tony credits American Conservatory Theater's training with ridding him of a thick accent. He was with the company in Pittsburgh, prior to their move to S.F.

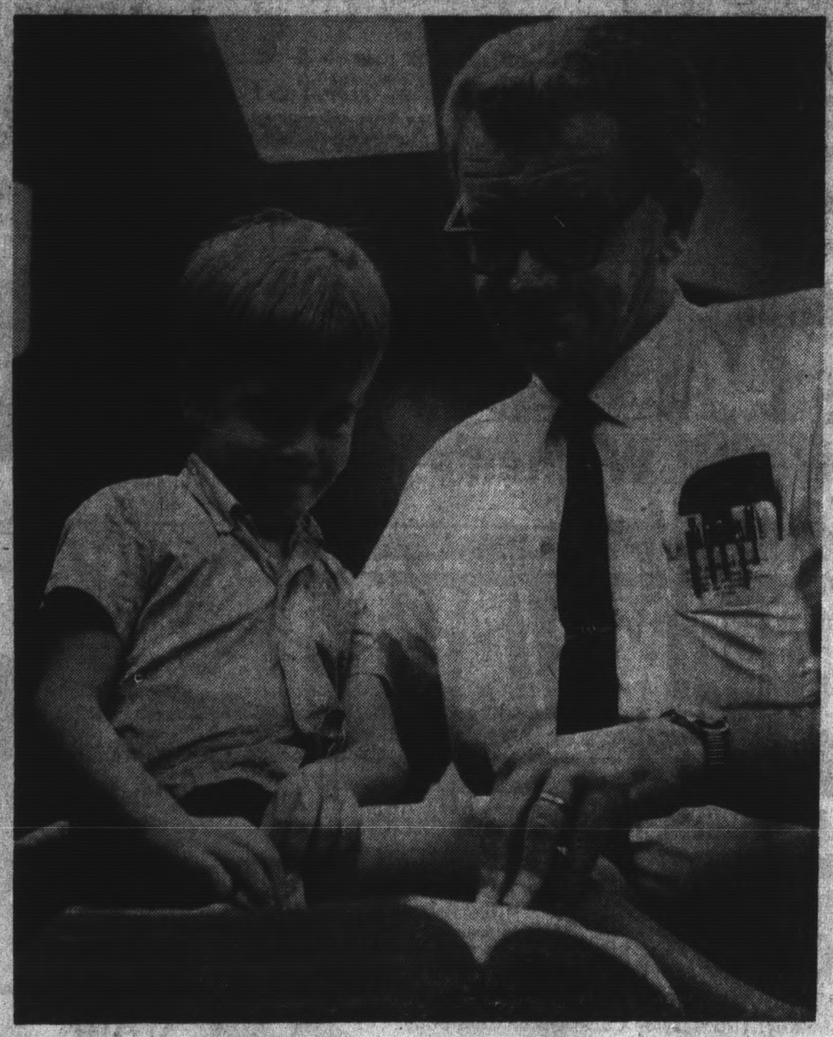
"MY MOTHER DECIDED TO GIVE ME DANCING LESSONS when I was only a tot. She'd drive 120 miles to Ft. Worth every week. It came pretty natural to me and we realized we'd created a monster. I had too much talent not to continue but it became too much trouble to continue. So my parents moved to Burbank when I was 15 because it wasn't too cool being the only dancer in a cow town."

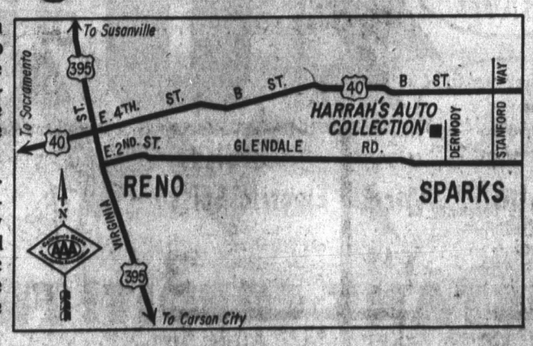
He went to work immediately, eventually working as the lead dancer in the Ed Sullivan, Dinah Shore and Jerry Lewis television shows. Two years in the Navy brought him right back into show business where he played Rudy Vallee's idiot nephew Bud Frump in the film version of "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying."



When a Guy Needs a Friend

LOOKING FOR MOM—Timmy Sunio looks through the Daly City phone book while waiting for his mom to come and claim him at the Daly City police department last week. The three-year-old Timmy, being helped by dispatcher Bob Crooker, was picked up by police sleeping on the sidewalk on Mission Street at 3 p.m. August 12 after wandering around for sometime trying to find his way back to the Mission Bell Motel where his mother, Dorothy J. Sunio, was staying. The evening shift at the station provided their new-found buddy with hamburgers, ice cream and fries while searching for the child's parents. Shortly before 10 p.m. the mother was located and Timmy was on his way home again—all smiles and several pounds heavier. (Post Photo)

Harrah's Fine Display Of Vintage Automobiles



The next time you are in Reno, Nevada, take time to visit Harrah's Automobile Collection. It is one of the finest displays of antique, vintage and classic automobiles in the country, if not the world.

At present there are over 1,400 cars in the collection ranging from such rare, early-day models as a 1902 Darracq and a 1903 Ford to the sleek classic cars of the 1930's, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Adult visitors to the collection will find dozens of cars that evoke fond memories of childhood days. Such dignified marques built in the 1920's and '30's as Marmon, Hupmobile, Flint, Franklin, Hudson, Reo, as well as dozens of early Fords, Chevrolets, Cadillacs and Dodges all represent the colorful and amazing growth of the automobile which has taken place in this century.

Although many car buffs have seen pictures of the famous cars of a bygone era, it is quite another thing to stand alongside the real McCoy and "feel" the personality and character of these archetypes of modern America's transportation system. Some of the vintage 1910-15 horseless carriages with their huge wooden-spoked wheels and round brass headlamps, cars that have an over-all height of over seven feet, are an awesome sight.

THE MAIN DISPLAY building at Harrah's Automobile Collection will capture your interest for at least an hour but don't stop there. Nearby are the shops where the many phases of restoration work are done on the cars before they are put on display.

Every last detail of every car is carefully, even painstakingly, attended to. Authenticity is a religion at the collection. When careful research has revealed that a Peable grain leather used in the upholstery of one of the cars is available only from England, it is ordered from England, even if a close facsimile is available right there in Reno.

No matter how uneducated the visitor may be in things automotive, he will be impressed by the sheer craftsmanship and luxury of some of the early limousines.

Peering into the rear passenger compartment of a 1920 Pierce-Arrow is like looking into the reception room of an elegant Victorian mansion. And the rakish fender lines of the Auburn Speedster, its aircraft-type instrument panel and incredibly long hood, all identify easily with the flamboyant twenties.

HARRAH'S AUTOMOBILE Collection all began back in 1948 when Bill Harrah acquired a 1911 Maxwell and a 1911 Ford and then soon added a 1906 Ford and 1902 Curved-Dash Olsmobile. His honest interest in the old cars soon forced him to abandon the four-car garage in Reno and in 1961 he moved the entire collection to its present location in Sparks, 3½ miles east of downtown Reno.

Harrah's Automobile Collection is open daily 10 to 5; admission is $1.50, children 75c. Bus tours from Harrah's in Reno are offered daily at 12:15 and 3:00 p.m.

Belated Vacation Talk

WITH ALL THE FUSS we've been trying to create lately, it's been difficult to find the time, the inclination and the space to eagerly tell you all of our vacation (okeh, okeh, come on back, for cryin' out loud.)

The first thing I learned about vacations is not to try to satisfy everyone. For, the wife's the kind who figures a vacation's for loafing, goofing off and for sleeping in particular. But, the kids — ours are no different than yours — have come to think of a vacation as to mean "swimming," and you figger that one out.

Course, I still prefer to get in the WET-mobile and drive on, for the highways are endless . . . and the beauty jumps out at me from the whole countryside, no matter where I am. To drive man, woman, beast and car is a pleasant hobby.

BUT I LOVE the California countryside . . . the grapes, deer and road ruts of Mendocino County . . . the "old home" bit in Lake County . . . the redwoods and fern of up beyond . . . the wine at Asti, the wine at Napa, the wine at . . . the fruit and trees of Santa Clara (what's left of them) . . . the cattle, grass, hills and coastline of San Luis Obispo . . . the flowers of Arroyo Grande . . . the feedlot at Santa Maria . . . the pure splendor of coastal Highway One . . . and more.

OH, one non-vacation note — sorry, can't answer some of the phone calls we've been getting late at night: The ones that go "Yucccck" and oink, "Pig" are just too mush to catch.

SAMUEL CHANDLER

(Daly City Librarian)

Jogging Is Different

"JOGGING IS DIFFERENT from most popular physical fitness programs," writes William J. Bowerman and W. E. Harris — one a coach; the other a medical doctor.

"Unlike weight-lifting, isometric exercises and calisthenics with emphasis on muscle building, jogging works to improve the heart, lungs and circulatory system. Other body muscles are exercised as well, but the great benefit comes from improving the way the heart and lungs work."

Bowerman and Dr. Harris published their book to outline an exercise program of relaxed walking and running that will improve the level of physical fitness of nearly anyone from seven to seventy.

Jogging, they write is safe, improves the heart and lungs, makes you look and feel better, helps you lose weight, builds endurance and confidence, makes a smaller waistline, and gives you a lifetime of better health.

IF THAT ISN'T ENOUGH to send you running, jogging is free, requires no special equipment, takes no more than 30 minutes three days a week, old and young can do it, it's enjoyable and it's fun.

Chapter Six of the book is entitled, "How To Jog."

"Stand up straight. Experience with runners proves that for either walking or running, remaining upright is the best posture. It affords the greatest freedom and ease of movement."

A grassy area is the best kind of surface for jogging because it has some spring in it, some give, that makes it easier on the joints of the ankle and the knee.

Where no grassy area is handy, any surface will do, provided you wear a shoe with a sturdy sole and a good cushion inside that will provide an artificial softness.

The coach and the doctor present jogging plans to match your fitness. They outline three plans. Plan A permits people who are out of condition to jog at a modest level. Plan B is suitable for the majority of men and women of any age. Plac C is suitable for that 10 per cent of both men and women who have a high level of physical fitgram for successful and rewarding jogging.

USING THESE PLANS for guides the authors outline a twelve-week proness.

The entire book grew out of an experience that Mr. Bowerman observed while touring New Zealand with the University of Oregon four-mile relay team. He found that many New Zealanders had a great zest for physical activity. This led him to investigate and to the observation that New Zealanders jog more than Americans.

When he returned to the United States he joined others who advocated more jogging by Americans. Soon he was their spokesman.

His book with Dr. Harris was published in 1967 and has been so popular it has been reprinted 13 times.

LORENE BEASLEY

(Better Business Bureau)

Calls of Inquiry

Fortunately, most business is honest and advertising and selling over the years have become more truthful and informative.

Thirty years ago most people called the Better Business Bureau to complain about advertising or selling misrepresentation.

Today, it is just the opposite. Most of the calls to the Bureaus are inquiries. Of ths more than 4½-million calls to Bureaus last year, nine out of ten were inquiries from people who simply wanted to check on the reputation of the company or wanted to find out about some business practice.

Surveys show that today problems frequently result from unintentional mistakes. In 80-90 per cent of the cases, Better Business Bureaus report voluntary solutions. There are a few things smart consumers must know buying specific kinds of goods and services.

No reputable company would stoop to such unscrupulous practice as "bait and switch" but some firms do run ads offering products at an extremely low price merely as a come-on.

When customers come into the store, the salesman informs them that the advertised product is inadequate or "sold out" and will try to sell them something more expensive and often, overpriced. Watch out if a product is advertised well below the usual price.

A SURVEY FOUND that most high school graduates do a very competent job of shopping in a supermarket and that they buy almost as efficiently as a professional home economist. It has been established that most women know exactly what to do when disappointed in a purchase. They complain either to the store, the manufacturer or the local Better Business Bureau.

A survey to help the consumer select and work with home improvement firms was recently made of Better Business Bureau's experience in 79 cities. It showed that most frequently persons who complained to Bureaus about home improvement contractors were distressed over poor workmanship or unfinished work.

These problems resulted in part from itinerant workers and high pressure selling plus the fact that many did not seek out a reliable contractor or just decided on price alone. Many persons accepted verbal promises instead of insisting that promises be put into writing.

KEEP IN mind these rules for intelligent buying:

(1) Buy only from reliable businessmen.

(2) Do not shop for price alone. Quality can be just as important.

(3) Read ads carefully, be cautious when you see such claims as "unbelievable savings."

(4) Learn to recognize an honest salesman; he knows his merchandise; will give a full explanation and will not evade questions.

(5) Never sign a blank contract. Read BEFORE you sign.

(6) Get all promises in WRITING.

(7) If in doubt about a company or business practice, call your nearest BB BEFORE you do business, not AFTER.

BIGGER AND BIGGER The troublesome cave-in on St. Francis Boulevard in Daly City has engineers all but tearing their hair out. Two weeks ago the same hole, which measured some 30 feet in diameter and 140 feet deep at that time was repaired by forcing grouting down into the hole. Late last week the road again started to slip away. David Cefalu shows his mother, Mrs. Rick Cefalu, where the road surface has begun to split and sink away. The area below the road was once a creek.

San Bruno Youths Caught By Officer

Three San Bruno youths were arrested on charges of marijuana possession Saturday night after a police patrolman caught them in a footchase near Skyline Boulevard and Ridgeway Avenue and later found 22 lids of "pot" in their vehicle.

Booked by San Bruno police on dual charges of possession of marijuana and possession of marijuana for sale were Darrell Hiroshima, 17, 2491 Rosewood Drive; Jerry Roberts, 17, 2361 Rosewood Drive, and Terrence Warfield, 16, 645 Cedar Street.

Patrolman Gary Krueger, the authorities said, was on routine patrol at 10:45 p.m. when he came upon a car parked in the intersection of Skyline and Ridgeway. The car's doors were wide open and the interior light on.

Nearby, along the side of the roadway, were four persons, Krueger noted in his report. They spotted Krueger and began to run away in pairs.

Krueger chased and apprehended two of them, then began checking out the car. In the process, the policeman assertedly found 22 lids of what he believed to be marijuana.

Under questioning, the pair, police said, admitted to purchasing the marijuana at San Bruno City Park and alleged they intended to sell it.

The third suspect was taken into custody when he returned to the car, identified himself as its owner, and said he ran because he was frightened.

Police said he gave substantially the same story about the purchase of the marijuana.

D.C. Nixes Huge Apartment Plan

Daly City Planning Commissioners August 12 unanimously denied the zone change application of Philip B. Wallace which would have allowed construction of a $2 million apartment house complex at the stub end of Westbrae Avenue.

The three plus acre site is perched on a steep 500 foot cliff overlooking the Pacific Ocean, in a single family residential neighborhood.

It was the third time applications for the development of the site have been rejected over the years.

Three weeks ago, the Daly City Council sent the matter back to the planners for reconsideration after it had been denied by that body.

Since the property was sold to a church group some ten years ago by the Henry Doelger Corporation, applicants have attempted to build a church, convalescent home, 21 single family units and, most recently, the four multi-storied apartments.

Following a series of lengthy meetings with various staff offices and city officials, Wallace and his representative, Julius Castellans of Daly City, decided two weeks ago to withdraw their request for a zone change and resubmit the matter under a "Planned Development" statute in order to hand over more strict control of the development to the city.

But the move failed and the Commission threw out the plan all together.

City Planner John Walker, in his first meeting since recovering from an illness which hospitalized him for more than a month informed the commission that his offices were against the proposal and recommended the matter be denied.

Biggest objection to the apartments (7 two-bedroom; 64 one-bedroom; eight studio type apartments) was the location.

Commissioner Leonard Brown stuck to his contention that the site was unstable and susceptable to landslides and other earth movements. He further questioned the accessability of the site in case of emergency, inasmuch as there is only one road into the development.

Wallace explained that soils engineers had reported in a number of documents submitted that the area was stable and no earth movements had been noted since the disasterous 1906 earthquake and, furthermore, no change in the topography of the site was experienced at that time—some 63 years ago.

But a brief report submitted to the Commission by acting city engineer David K. Macabee on the area was apparently the deciding factor.

Air West Adds Flights

In response to accelerated passenger loads this summer, Air West is adding four new "spaceship flights" to its schedule beginning today.

The new flights, all to be flown with Air West's new DC-9 jet spaceships, will provide more convenient air service to travelers in four cities. They are:

—Phoenix: A mid-afternoon departure to Salt Lake City bringing to three the number of non-stop jet flights between the two points. The new flight will depart Phoenix at 2 p.m. and arrive in Salt Lake City at 4:16.

—Salt Luke City: A late afternoon non-stop flight to Los Angeles offering full meal and beverage service. The flight will leave Salt Lake City at 5 p.m., arriving in Los Angeles at 5:30. The new service will be the third non-stop flight between Utah and Southern California.

—Los Angeles: A convenient peak-time flight to Las Vegas timed for arrival at the beginning of evening activity. It will leave Los Angeles at 6 p.m., and arrive in Las Vegas at 6:50, bringing to 10 the number of daily round-trip flights between Las Vegas and Los Angeles.

—Las Vegas: Early evening flight to Phoenix leaving at 7:15 p.m., arriving at Phoenix at 8:05.

Larry Decker, vice president-marketing, said the flights are being added to meet passenger demands created by popularity of Air West's spaceship seating concept. Fifteen of the airline's newest jets have been converted to 84-seat configurations providing the most leg room on any U.S. carrier.

Air West boardings in August have been running at a record pace. Last Friday the airline set an all-time daily high of 12,900 passengers with a 63 per cent load factor. During the three-day weekend, a record 33,800 passengers were carried.

100 Courses Available For Evening

Approximately 100 courses from Skyline College's eight divisions will be made available to the more than 2,000 students who are expected to enroll in the college's evening classes, David P. Marin, associate dean of instruction and director, Evening College, announced today.

"The Evening College catalog will be ready for distribution after August 20. We anticipate one of the most extensive and comprehensive evening programs to be made available for North San Mateo County residents," Marin declared.

Group counseling, placement testing, and similar services are being made available to the evening college attendees. However, unlike the daytime program, evening college students (except for art and English classes) need not apply for classes. Registration and enrollment in the "after-sunset classes" will be held on the first session and meeting of the particular course.

Yet there are important dates relating to the evening college students. They include: Monday, August 25, group counseling, 7 p.m.; Tuesday, August 26, English Placement Test, 6:30 p.m. Required of all students planning to enroll in their first credit English course. This test also is open for daytime students who may have missed earlier testing dates.

Tuesday, September 2, Group counseling, 7 p.m.

Wednesday, September 3, pre-registration for all art and English classes from 12:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Thursday, September 4, English Placement Test, 6:30 p.m. Required of all students planning to enroll in their first credit English course. This test also is open for daytime students who may have missed earlier testing dates.

Wednesday, September 10, fall semester opens — through September 16, Tuesday.

Wednesday, September 17 through Tuesday, September 23, period of late registration. Students must be registered by second week of class meeting.

Courses in a variety of areas will be offered. They include aeronautics, anthropology, art, biology, business, chemistry, economics, English, French, geology, guidance, health education, history, home economics, horiculture, management, mathematics, meteorology, music, oceanography, philosophy, physical education, physical science, political science, psychology, real estate, recreation education, sociology, Spanish, speech, technology, telecommunications.

Residents and students interested in enrolling in the evening college or securing further information should contact Evening College-Skyline College, 3300 College Drive, San Bruno, 94066, Calif.

Aid Sought For Clinics In County

A call was issued by the Health Division of the County Department of Public Health and Welfare to help man nine family planning clinics which are operated monthly.

Five are held in East Palo Alto, two in San Mateo, and two in South San Francisco.

It is reported the county has experienced increasing difficulty in finding doctors to work in the clinics. The pay is $36 per clinic session at present and an effort is being made to obtain an increase.

Any physician willing to help on a regular or emergency basis is urged to contact Dr. James Bodie, superintendent of the Health Division, or Dr. Selzer also at the county health center, 225 Thirty-seventh Avenue in San Mateo.

The family planning clinic schedules are as follows: North County Health Center, 1024 Mission Road, South San Francisco, held the first and third Tuesdays monthly from 1 to 4 p.m.; Public Health Clinic, 225 Thirty-seventh Avenue, San Mateo, held the first and third Fridays from 9 to 12 a.m.; and the Bay Road District office, 1645 Bay Road, East Palo Alto, held the first, third and fourth Wednesdays from 5 to 7 p.m.; the second Wednesday, 2 to 4:30 p.m.; and the fourth Thursday of every month from 1 to 4 p.m.

$800 Theft In S.S.F.

A television, typewriter, liquor and ammunition with a total value of more than $800 were taken from a South San Francisco apartment in a burglary sometime over the weekend, police reported.

Officers said the apartment of Stanley Heeley, 2311 Bourbon Court, was broken into while the occupant was away. Entrance was gained through forcing a sliding glass door.

Prizes For D.C. Horses

Colorful Arabian horse competitions, including five $500 Pacific Slope Championships, will return to the Cow Palace as part of the October 24 through November 2 Grand National Horse Show, according to Joseph G. Moore, horse show chairman and a member of the Cow Palace Board of Directors.

More than 200 horses are expected for this second consecutive year of Grand National Arabian horse contests, scheduled for Friday through Sunday, October 31-November 2.

Closing date for entries is Friday, September 26. Premium books are available from Allen Ross, horse show manager, Cow Palace, P.O. Box 34206, San Francisco.

An additional highlight of this Silver Anniversary Grand National Horse Show will be the World's Championship Jumper Sweepstakes. The Grand National Rodeo, featuring the world's top professional cowboys, and the annual livestock exposition will run simultaneously with the horse show.

'Robo-Wash' Opens Soon

Construction is under way for a fully automatic car wash at the corner of California and Murchison Drives in Burlingame.

The owners, J. A. Hauchman and B. R. Kidder, both of San Mateo, state that the "Robo-Wash" facility will have three automatic wash positions. The driver stays in the car while a stainless steel washer makes four round-trips on a track.

Two cycles use a warm, zero-soft detergent bath to loosen dirt; the next two cycles use zero-soft rinse water, allowing the car to dry free of spots, they say.

Trout Over the Coals – An Interesting Summertime Delicacy Family May Like

Here's a bang-up idea for your next barbecue. Trout Over The Coals, a new Bureau of Commercial Fisheries recipe, is guaranteed to tantalize the smell, delight the eye, and satisfy appetites already over-sized with outdoor anticipation. Rainbow trout are all-time favorites, indoors or out, but they are a gourmet's dream when grilled over the coals.

In Trout Over The Coals, the trout are basted with a zesty mixture that will spotlight their delicate flavor. Pineapple-orange juice for a tart-sweet taste, chili sauce for zip, and a touch of soy sauce for intrigue are mixed with a little salad oil and salt. This chef-style basting sauce is unusual and one that will make your trout a stand-out in the flavor sweepstakes.

Maybe you will be lucky enough to catch your trout out of a cool stream and enjoy it cooked over a campfire. However, if that opportunity isn't possible or if that isn't your idea of fun, you can still enjoy trout any time of the year. Today's modern trout farms raise these tempting fish for the tables of America. Selective breeding and scientific food formulas have produced strains of rainbow trout that grow bigger and faster than their wild counterparts.

When market size, these meaty, farm-grown delicacies are selected, cleaned, and packaged for distribution throughout the country. With modern freezing and shipping techniques, frozen rainbow trout are available nationwide. Frozen trout are sold fresh-frozen, boned, and boned and breaded; usually in 8-ounce packages containing two 4-ounce trout. Boned trout have the backbone and ribs removed; boned and breaded trout have the fins, backbone, and ribs removed. Fresh trout, packed in ice, are available in many areas. Seafood markets usually have fresh trout in 5, 6, 8, and 10-ounce sizes. Commercially raised trout are sold with the head and tail attached.

Boy Scouts, at the recent 7th Annual Boy Scout Jamboree in Farragut, Idaho, enjoyed trout which were provided by one of the trout farms in that part of the country. Live trout were supplied for the boys to catch in ponds as well as dressed trout for them to cook over a campfire. Reports from returning Scouts indicate that the trout were great eating. Why don't you join the Scouts by enjoying rainbow trout now and year round?

Fish and Shellfish Over The Coals (I 49.39:14) is chockful of recipes and ideas for outdoor seafood cookery. This 24-page, full-color booklet, published by the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, contains information on how to buy and prepare the fish and how to build and start the fire. For your copy, send 40 cents to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

There Are Many Salad and Meat Potentials to Explore in Peninsula Kitchens

A California-based salad dressing firm has come up with a flock of fine recipes for salads, meats and fish, which Times and Post readers may wish to try. Here they are, courtesy of Bernstein's.

COLESLAW

Soak in ice water two cups finely shredded cabbage, drain, chill to crisp. Mix equal amounts of Roquefort Dressing or Danish Blue Cheese Dressing and table cream; add salt and vinegar to taste. Mix well throughout cabbage.

SALAD IDEAS

Marinate in Italian Dressing and add any or all to salad: canned kidney beans, thoroughly drained; raw cauliflowerets; raw celery, sliced on angle. In Italian, marinate rings from small onions overnight; mix with cucumber slices marinated about two hours — use in salads or as a side dish.

VEGETABLES

In place of butter or sour cream, pour Danish Blue Cheese cheese Dressing or Roquefort Dressing on baked potato; top with green onions or chopped parsley. Green Goddess Dressing may be substituted in this recipe.

Drizzle about one ounce Italian dressing over hot drained cauliflower, cabbage or broccoli; serve.

As a change from mayonnaise, hollandaise, bernaise sauce or butter, top hot or cold cauliflower, broccoli or brussels sprouts with Roquefort, Danish Blue Cheese, French or Green Goddess Dressings.

Celery Victor shortcut: Steam celery stalks, drain, cool; marinate overnight in Italian Dressing.

Slightly undercook (for crispness) one pkg. each frozen string beans and peas. Drain; cool; mix together with two ozs. Italian Dressing. Serve on bed of lettuce.

APPETIZERS

Two days before serving, wash and remove stems from small uncooked mushrooms. Place the caps in jar, cover with Italian Dressing; add clove of garlic, small amount of parsley, and a dash of Sherry wine, if desired. Refrigerate; shake jar occasionally. Drain, run toothpick through each; serve. (Save the dressing; use for a salad.)

Mix cream cheese with Dressings or Seafood Cocktail Sauce. Each variety makes a different flavor dip or spread for crackers. When spread on crackers, top with smoked oyster, chopped olives, pimiento, anchovy, capers, cavier, etc.

Youth, 15, Loses In Chase

A 15-year-old San Francisco youth who properly signalled every major turn late August 12 led South San Francisco police units on a speedy, hair-raising chase through residential areas and forced patrol units and private citizens alike to scramble off the streets.

South San Francisco Police Sgt. Julius Koefoed said the young suspect, Edward Joseph Chaney of 1910 Church Street, San Francisco, was driving a 1967 Mustang, reported stolen an hour before the six-mile, 60-mile-an-hour chase began at 11:53 p.m.

The car, owned by Joseph E. Muzio, 353 Ferndale Avenue, South San Francisco, was damaged when it spun out of control and smashed into a parked vehicle in the 900 block of Grand Avenue.

Patrolman Ronald Petrocchi first spotted the car at the intersection of Ferndale and Morningside avenues, in the Sunshine Garden sector of South San Francisco.

The driver of the suspect car responded to the patrolman's red light and siren and pulled to the curb on Mission Road.

But, as Petrocchi got out of his patrol vehicle, the suspect car took off north, toward Colma, at a speed, Petrocchi said, in excess of 60 miles an hour.

Sgt. Koefoed said Petrocchi pursued, calling for additional South San Francisco units, which soon joined the chase.

As the police cars drew nearer and attempted to force him over, Chaney, the authorities said, made a U-turn near Holy Cross Cemetery, driving back toward his pursuers, forcing the police units to pull off the road to avoid collisions.

The chase continued at 60 miles an hour through the residential areas of Sunshine Gardents — with Chaney assertedly running stop signs, and forcing other traffic off the roadway.

At one point he swerved the car around a police unit that had spun out and slid broadside on the center of the roadway.

Finally, six miles and about six minutes later, Chaney lost control of the Muzio auto. It spun in the street and smashed into a parked car, damaging both vehicles.

Chaney, unhurt, was taken to Hillcrest Juvenile Center.

A police department spokesman said the youth had two car theft "priors."

New Concept in Directory in Bruno

The 1970 Business Director published by the San Bruno Chamber of Commerce will have a new concept for a local directory, according to committee chairman John Berglund.

Three separate sections: the first, telephone and address index of schools, civic, social clubs, and city officials; second, list of businesses; third, information ads.

"We plan to salute the opening of Skyline College," Berglund said. "The front cover will feature a picture of the North County college located in San Bruno. The back cover will have an aerial photograph of the airport because we are known as 'The Airport City.'"

The new concept of the San Bruno Business District is aimed at the consumer, and to give advertisers "two for the price of one."

"The directory will provide a service to the residents of San Bruno," Berglund said.

"As our theme states, 'We're Involved in San Bruno,'" he added.

SECURITY POLICE

SAN ANTONIO — Airman Jene A. Van Zant, son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Van Zant of 533 Zita, South San Francisco, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex.

Major Detour Made On New Freeway

A major detour for Interstate Route 280, the Junipero Serra Freeway in San Bruno was made yesterday.

The effect of the detour will be to shift Route 280 eastward between San Bruno Avenue and Sneath Lane.

Traffic heading north and south on Junipero Serra should experience no delays except for the usual traffic signals at those points.

On San Bruno Avenue, both directions of traffic were shifted slightly southward where that avenue crosses the freeway. Some construction will continue for about three weeks on San Bruno Avenue just west of Route 280.

Sneath Lane traffic has been shifted southward in a more noticeable curve, following generally the lines of what will be a half-cloverleaf in years to come.

In fact, this major detour of Route 280, expected to be in operation for about a year, is still only part of a long range improvement plan to bring Route 280 up to full freeway standards in this area. When the final stage of the job is reached in 1971, San Bruno Avenue will be an undercrossing and Sneath Lane will be a half-cloverleaf. At that time, San Bruno Avenue traffic will make connection with Route 280, via frontage roads, through the Sneath Lane Interchange.

Eventually this section of freeway between San Bruno Avenue and Sneath Lane will include a major interchange interconnecting Route 280 with Route 186 and the new Route 380.

Son Beaten By Rec Aide, Mother Says

The mother of a 13-year-old South San Francisco boy last week charged that her son was assaulted by an assistant playground director at the city's Brentwood Park Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Fred Poli said her son, Gary, was "choked and beaten" by the part-time playground assistant following an argument over a baseball game young Poli had umpired the day before.

"The playground director disagreed with my son's decisions during the game between Ponderosa Park and Brentwood," Mrs. Poli said.

The part-time city playground director is 17.

South San Francisco police said today the incident is "still under investigaiton," and no charges have been brought thus far.

2 Principals Are Named By Laguna

An Oregonian and an experienced elementary principal from Castro Valley have been hired to fill building principal positions in the Laguna Salada Union School District.

Dr. Austin Haddock and Douglas Morgan bring to the local school district a total of 32 years of educational experience.

Morgan, who last year was principal of the Sydney School in Castro Valley, previously served with the Oakland City Schools and for 1½ years, directed a Federal program for 21 elementary and secondary schools, including the projects' operation, program development and evaluation. He has been assigned to the Vallemar School.

Haddock, who holds a Doctor's Degree from the University of Oregon, comes to the local scene from the Oregon State Department of Education, where for the past five years he has been State Director of Elementary Education. He will assume the principalship at the Sharp Park School.

The local elementary district will re-open its doors on September 10 with five new principals. In addition to Morgan and Haddock, three positions were filled by current employees, Leslie Linhares (Cabrillo), Ron Lewis (Pacific Heights), and John Logan (Sanchez.)

Truck Hits Pole, Holds Up Traffic

The busy 400 block of Baden Avenue in South San Francisco was blocked for nearly three hours August 12 as Pacific Gas and Electric Co. crews worked on transformers after a truck hit a utility pole.

A South San Francisco Fire Department source said a meat truck struck the pole at 8:34 a.m., knocking off one transformer and causing another to catch fire.

Commuter-hour traffic was detoured around the area.

The truck driver, identified as Ronald Dickson of 1524 Sixth Avenue, Belmont, banged a knee, firemen said, as he hastily got out of his vehicle when a transformer exploded.

He was treated at Kaiser Hospital.

South Lake Tahoe Is A Greyhound Specialty

Park Avenue Tours offers the ultimate in package deals to South Lake Tahoe, Las Vegas, Disneyland and Reno. A big favorite is the daily eight-hour turn-around, with transportation provided by Greyhound Buses. Today's Greyhound trips are most relaxing — seats are large and comfortable. The Greyhound Bus theme of "Leave the driving to us" ends your traffic problems . . . You don't have to go to San Francisco to enjoy the haute cuisine of France or Italy. The Stage Coach Room in Stickney's, at the Fifth Avenue Center, San Mateo, is becoming a mecca for Peninsula diners with discriminating palates and a yen for glamorous trappings. The menu boasts such exquisite dishes as Tournedos Belle Helene and Crab Legs Mornay. Manager Bill Roser runs a smooth operation, where male waiters and romantic atmosphere give the plush room a "very San Francisco" feeling. Try it . . . Many Peninsula residents planning to see "Goodbye, Columbus" at the Cinema 21 Theater in San Francisco enjoy dinner before or after-the-movie at Lew Lehr's Steak House (on Steiner Street near Chestnut, just around the corner from the theatre).

Louis Frutschi, manager and host at L'Auberge in Atherton, recently made an acquisition of rare wines which will be of interest to all wine connoisseurs. The cache, all imported vintages, is now available on the wine menu. Some of the highlights are Chateau Latour '59, Mouton Rothschild '59, Romanee Conti '62 and Echezeaux '59. Loire White, Alsatian, Italian, Swiss and other wines are available, in addition to eight brands of imported champagne, including the incomparable Taittinger Blanc de Blanc . . . Featuring the cuisine of French Chef Jean Combettes, luncheon and dinner is served daily. Added attractions are the Wednesday fashion shows during luncheon, and the musical renditions of Harpist Phyllis Schlomovitz in the evening. Reservations are suggested . . . No lull in the barber shop industry at the Holiday Inn, South San Francisco. Owners Fred and Jerry Rapp have increased the "scissor staff" to four. In addition, a manicurist is at hand to "nail you down." "There's everything here now except tickets to "Hair," say the Rapp brothers. . . . Sam Marconi, spirited owner of the Iron Horse, has a right to be proud of his old San Francisco and old New Orleans-type restaurant on Maiden Lane. There are fine banquet rooms for festive entertaining, an intimate cocktail lounge, complimentary hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, and gourmet luncheons and dinners . . . Prime Ribs and Filet Mignon topped the menu, last week, when a huge gathering of men who contributed their talents and labors to the 250-unit expansion program and refurbishing of the El Rancho Motel-Restaurant in Millbrae, were hosted to a lavish dinner-party, with pre-happy hour cocktails, in the beautiful banquet facilities. Among those present were co-owner Earl Wilms and Millbrae contractor Joseph Garibaldi, who later treated the men to a preview showing of their job well done. . . .

Moves by King Seemed Strange

BY LE PACINI

IT'S NOT OUR NATURE to second-guess major league managers, for the obvious reason that even the dullest ones know more than we, but Clyde King made some moves in a losing Pittsburgh game the other day which seemed to us very strange.

The background was this: Tito Fuentes, Willie Mays and Willie McCovey were injured and totally unavailable. This left King with a bench — aside from pitchers — of Jack Hiatt (still weak after an ulcer bout), John Stephenson, Bob Barton (we assume . . . he may have been injured or on army duty), Jimmy Hart (only as a pinch-hitter because of a bad shoulder not allowing him to throw), Don Mason and Jimmy Davenport.

The Giants were behind 4-0 when King pinch-hit Mason a lefty against Priate righty Jim Bunning, for pitcher Mike McCormick in the third inning. Later in the game, around the sixth or seventh and the Giants still trailing by a run or two, King used Davenport, his LAST infielder, his last defensive player, to pinch-hit. Shortly thereafter he used Hart for Lanier in the kind of spot you save for a pinch-hitter like Hart . . . a men on base situation where a long ball can put you back in the game. Hart didn't come through, and with Lanier gone King was suddenly left with just two infielders to cover three positions.

SO HE PUT CATCHER Stephenson on third, where he hasn't played since he put in a few games with the Mets five years ago, and Stephenson promptly made two errors to spark a Pirate rally which put the game out of reach.

Our question is . . . or are, these: If King HAD to use a left-hander to pinch-hit early in the game, why not Stephenson rather than Mason? King was still covered in the catching department — even if Barton wasn't available — by Hiatt; admittedly out of catching condition but certainly adequate in an emergency situation.

Further, why not have had Hiatt, rather than Davenport, pinch-hit later in the game? Again, at that point he KNEW that Davenport was the last "defensive" man on the bench. The game was still close and he could have anticipated Davenport's defensive need. Hiatt is essentially an offensive player.

Had King pinch-hit Stephenson instead of Mason and Hiatt instead of Davenport, King would have gone into that fateful ninth inning not with a catcher at third base and a third baseman (Bobby Etheridge) at short, but with the choice of two infielders to insert at short in Lanier's place, probably Davenport because of much previous experience there. And with a regular third baseman at that bag, the whole complexion of the game might have been changed.

Admittedly, there might have been things happening on the bench or in the clubhouse about which only a manager would have knowledge and which could have prompted the moves King made. But on the face of it, he made some unpardonable goofs in player manipulation.

MISCELLANY: If you think baseball isn't a changing game, consider that the supposedly pitcher-rich (if you believe preseason prognosticators) Chicago White have almost as bad an team ERA as Cincinnati, and at 4.58, Cincy's is the worst in baseball . . .

We wonder if Charley Finley is eating his heart out. His old town — the one he felt his A's would go busted in — Kansas City, is outdrawing the pennant contending Oaklands by 150,000 with a miserable expansion club . . .

White Sox rookie Carlos May was dealt a bad card when he blew his right thumb off in reserve training, but he may not necessarily be through. If we remember correctly, the old Oakland Oaks had a shortstop named Artie Wilson with the same handicap, and Artie was able to make throws from the hole with that partial right hand, and average about .330 a year.

In fact, we believe he led the Coast League in hitting one year and went up to the New York Giants for a brief fling in the early '50's. Of course, he couldn't power the ball with that missing thumb and had to slap most of his hits to the off-field. But don't degrade the fact that he couldn't make the majors. In those days they were really the majors. Old Artie would have stuck in this expansion era, and that's something for May to think about.

If the Giants are looking for punch — and they certainly should be — they need look no further than their own Phoenix arm club, where they have Leon Wagner and Dick Stuart murdering the ball. Neither one of them are defensive players, for true, but then neither are John Stephenson or Dick Dietz or Bobby Etheridge, and a Wagner or Stuart would look much better coming to the plate in a pinch situation late in a catch-up game than, say, Stephenson.

WE COLUMNISTS do all sorts of crazy things to give you readers variety. Like cover girls' softball games.

The other evening, at the behest of girl flak Judy Allen, a Jefferson High alumnae who now does secretarial work for Air West, we covered the opening game of a newly formed girls' airline league. This particular game was between Air West and TWA.

Judy had informed us that TWA was the toughest team in the league (which will also include American and Pan American) and that they had even practiced to get ready for them. That turned out to be a costly innovation, however, because Judy and several other girls had strained things, which wasn't as bad as having to fight off all the guys at work who had suddenly turned masseurs.

The game finally got under way, however, at this San Francisco playground which must import its fog from Westlake, and once one's eyes adjusted to being able to follow shadowly figures, it was rather interesting. Of course, we didn't see the start of the game, having arrived late and fallen over an eight foot wire fence we had athletically attempted to scale to save a foot wire fence we had athletically attempted to scale to save a walk around the corner. We won't even mention the brand new pair of shoes we scuffed nor standing in sub-zero weather in summer clothes, all to give you readers some variety.

NOW ABOUT THE GAME. What with having fallen off an eight foot fence and the fog and cold and all the usual things which take place at a girls' softball game (such as shunning rules, screaming a lot and throwing balls to spectators when teammates will not respond)," much of what ensued seems as a blur.

We do remember, however, that right about the time Judy had an argument with a rather confused gentleman who purported to be Air West's manager about how if he wanted her to take her proper turn at bat he should TELL her it's her turn at bat, the scored somehow became tied, 4-4, at the end of three innings, the score somehow became tied, 4-4, at the end of three innings, when Air West's pitcher hadn't shown up because she was on a date and the TWA pitcher was a ringer built like Gaylord Perry who wasn't following lob ball rules but really slingin' 'em in there.

And then it really hit the fan. Gaylord took the mound smoking a cigarette, and it must have weakened her because Air West had a small 45 minute, 14 run rally which never really ended, because with two outs the TWA manager conceded the game. Not because they were so far behind — a 15 run rally in girls' softball in not unheard of — but because the fog was ruining the girls' hair- or some such mystical thing.

As we were leaving, they started to play again, for some obscure reason which we were afraid to ask about.

As we were driving home we were haunted with the feeling

Pacifica's Bass Derby Into Homestretch

37-Pounder Hauled In By Catron

The Pacifica Jaycees' West Coast Striped Bass Derby is entering the homestretch with only three weeks remaining in the tourney.

To some fishermen, the action may seem to be slow, but if the number of fish entered in the derby each week is any indication, there are plenty of fish in the ocean for those who are willing to work for them.

The steadiest action seems to be off of the points of Rockaway Beach, Mori's Point, or Mussel Rock. Fish are regularly picked up at these locations by a system called blind casting.

Blind Casting is plugging for bass without the obvious birds working over a run. Lots of strippers hang around the rocky points, and with a little effort, can be picked up by the use of one of the many large stripper plugs available. Chuck Smith, at Jet Gun and Reel, and Elmo Dedeaux, at Pacifica Sports Center can outfit you with the lure that will get you some action.

Largest fish caught during the week ending August 16 was caught by Floyd Catron of Pacifica. The lunker weighed in at 37 pounds.

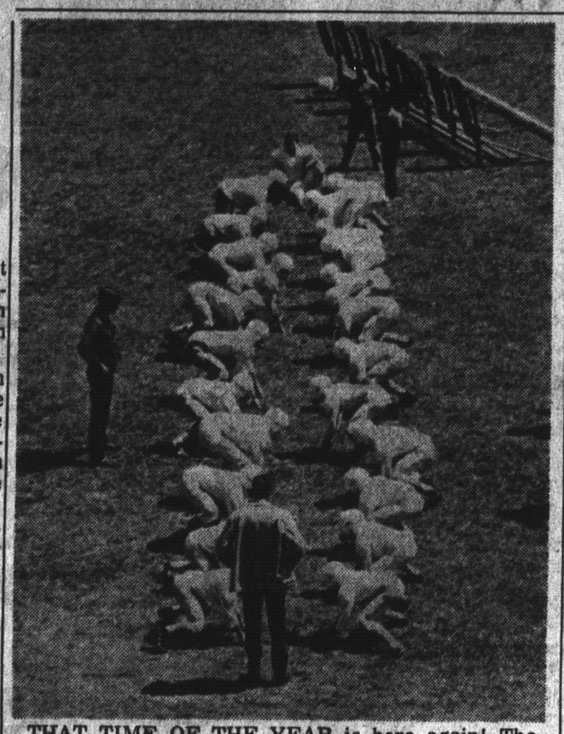
Winners of the derby daily prizes for the same week were: Bill Moore, 231 Wilshire, Daly City; Edward Martinell, 1190 Escalero Avenue, Pacifica; Denis Carollo, 2501 Cottonwood Drive, San Bruno; J. G. Mazanec, 360 Esplanade, Pacifica; David O. De La Vega, 432 Del Mar Avenue, Pacifica; Phil Pruett, 897 Calera Terrace, Pacifica, and George Knacke, 895 Calera Terrace, Pacifica.

Going virtually unnoticed by contestants in the derby are the two custom Aurora Rods given for the largest Surf Perch and Salmon caught during the tourney. Last week one nimrod checked into Jet Gun and Reel with a Three and three-fourths pound rubber lipped perch, and get this, he wouldn't register it in the derby!!

The Aurora Custom Rods given for the two categories of Salmon and Perch are just that — custom rods, designed to the specifications and requirements of the winners in the categories by Dick Gordon of Princeton.

Largest Salmon registered to date, 21½ pounds, caught by Russ Conroy of Pacifica.

So all you perch bait tossers remember to bring in your catch to one of the three weighing stations in Pacifica. Jet Gun and Reel, 1604 Francisco Boulevard; Pacifica Sports Center, 2130 Palmetto Avenue, and Speedy 7-11, 100 Calrendon.



THAT TIME OF THE YEAR is here again! The football teams are beginning to bloom all over Daly City and Pacifica playing fields. Here, the Pacifica Dolphins, a Pop Warner football team, is shaping up its material for another successful season. Rookies are signing up and trying out, and the first string hold-overs from last year are brushing up on their tackles. (Starr Photo)

Whispers Move To Loop Top

The Whispers moved on top in the Daly City Recreation Department High School Slow Pitch Softball League by edging the Westmoor Park Knuckle Balls 6-5 last week in an important game. Ron Hackett's home run and the four-for-four hitting of Tony Moss and Reginald Green paced the winner's attack.

The Westlake Park Trojans notched their second league victory as they trimmed the Seals 2-1 behind the offensive and defensive play of Steve Green.

The Local Yokels split a pair of games last week as they bombed the Seals, 10-0, behind the hitting of Steve Rivell, Don Thuene, and Gary Troxler but lost a later encounter to the Westmoor Park Knuckle Balls by the score of 8-1.

Kings And Kueens Keep Their Lead

The Kings and Kueens continue to dominate play in the Daly City Recreation Department Adult Co-Rec Volleyball "B" League as they took three fast games from The Group last week — 15-3, 15-7 and 15-9.

The Odd Squad received some "static" from the Wild Bunch but managed to notch two out of three wins from the tenacious losers by scores of 15-13, 12-15 and 15-13.

The second-place Rejects drew a bye.

The Clinic will be conducted on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 10 a.m.-1 p.m.

Discussions, demonstrations, and practical application will center around Basic Fundamentals, conditioning, techniques, and Film Presentations.

Servomation Falls To First Cabins

The pitching of Ed Guzman and the hitting of Jim Manning led the Club First Cabin to a 14-3 win over Servomation and a two-game lead in the Daly City Recreation Department Western Division Adult Slow Pitch Softball League.

Carl Rose, Jerry Connors, Bill Fosberry, and Ron Desidiri each contributed home runs for the 69ers as they clobbered the Daly City Mets 26-7.

In final action, the Walkup Merchant Express slipped past the previously league-leading St. Andrew Scots, 8-7, for one of the league's biggest upsets.

Pastel Face-Decorating, Broom Hockey Highlights

M. PAULINE BROWN
By Lydia Schneider

Face decorating was the big event for the week at M. P. Brown. Using pastel chalks we created a "Frito Bandito" out of Jeffrey Greenblat, a minstrel singer out of Laura Norlo and a Frankenstein out of Sam Garcia. Jeff Sturkert used his artistic ability to help create all these creatures.

A softball game also helped keep the week exciting. The pitching ability of Theresa Cipolla led her team to a decided defeat (6-1) at the hands of her opponents.

The efforts of Mike and Ernie Garcia, Ricky Wyatt, John Nesby, and Ken and Jim Espino helped to make the game interesting and fun.

OLYMPIA
By Mike Ciardelo

On August 8, Olympia School held a broom hockey game on the playground. Nelson's Redwing's defeated Ciardella's Maplelefts, 10-5. Outstanding player for the Redwings was Steve Nelson, Nelson scored 5 goals in the victory.

Outstanding player for the Maplelefts was Jim Matteucci, who showed great hustle the entire game. Broom hockey has become a popular game at Olympia. Another broom hockey game was scheduled for Friday, August 15.

This week, "The Boy of the Week Award" goes to Pat O'Gorman.

"The Girl of the Week Award" goes to Kathy Grealish.

Special thanks go to the following people for making this summer at Olympia an enjoyable one. George, Tom and Joanne McLaughlin, Pat, Dee-Dee, and Joe O'Gorman, Doug and John Robbins, Lynn, Lisa, and Dean O'Connor, Bob Massola, Steve Nelson, Gary Botti, Mike Keller, Karen Toner, Mike Cummings, Ray Restivo, Dan and Tim Collins, Bob Banomi, and last but not least John McLaughlin.

WESTLAKE PARK
By Bob Verducci

The long awaited moment has arrived The official "Boy and Girl of the Summer" has been determined. The title is awarded to the boy and the girl who best exemplifies leadership, congeniality, and helpfulness at the park.

Congratulations to Gary Bucchinaeri, who is "The Boy of the Summer" at Westlake Park.

In the girls' division it would be unfair to single out one girl, since there are three equally deserving of the title: Jeanie Patt, Sally Costello, and DeDe Ravelli, are "The girls of the Summer" at Westlake Park.

Clutch pitching by Vicky Ellopoulos and daring baserunning by Brad Reid led the Westlake Park Athletics to a 7-6 victory over Pallsades. George Parry and Kirk Dave also played outstanding baseball. In the high school pitch softball league, the Trojans were 1-1 for the week.

After losing a close ball game to the Local Yokels 8-6, they came back to Eke out a 2-1 decision over the Seals.

Steve Green was responsible for the victory as he drove in the winning run in the fifth inning. John McHugh, Brian Franz, and George Parry sparked the offense, while Nicky Barnes, Peter Ellopoulos, and Paul Mifsud performed tenaciously in the field.

The summer program will conclude at Westlake Park with two exciting events, remaining on the agenda. On August 21, the Junior Olympics will be held and on Friday, August 22 there will be a party and a gigantic water-balloon contest. Everyone is invited to attend.

VISTA MAR
By Virginia Simon

Indians did a War Dance on August 5 at Vista Mar Playground, for "Indian Day."

Reed Quinn and Hannah Jones (complete with papoose) won miniature trophies for their costumes. Part of the day included races and "silent movies" about Indians. Children wore the headdresses and beads they had made as part of their costumes.

Seen hitting the boards, making that old ping-pong ball sail in anticipation of Tournament Day have been Brian McNamara, Bob Carlson, Bill Hurley, and Rich Dela Cruz.

Local scuttlebutt is whether the Giants or the A's will win a pennant. Also of interest to the children have been newly born puppies which have visited Vista Mar, thanks to Robin and Roger Homer.

No Football This Year at Skyline

Skyline College will not field a football team this year.

The San Bruno campus of the College of San Mateo will launch a first year sports program which includes basketball, wrestling and soccer but no football.

"Right now it is impossible to say when we'll inaugurate the football program," said Athletic Director Walt Rilliet, "but it is definitely included in our plans."

Lee Allen, wrestling coach at College of San Mateo last year and one of the top men in his specialty, will coach the Skyline team this year.

Allen said he requested a transfer from CSM to the new Skyline campus "because most of my top wrestlers have come out of the North County in the past, and I expect the trend to continue."

"There seems to be more interest in the sport in the high schools up here," he said.

Soccer Coach Horn Friedeberg said Skyline players will use fields at neighboring high schools this year, but the outdoor facilities at the new school are expected to be developed by next season.

Serramonte Work Goes Onward, But Slowly...

LOOKS CAN BE DECEIVING — Present timetables call for "beneficial occupancy" of the new Serramonte High School Library, administrative sections and little theatre "sometime this week," though these Post photos and Jefferson High School Dist. Supt. Ed Morgan agree, "They've an awful lot to do." While other district schools will open September 10, Serramonte — a Daly City school especially built for flexible modular scheduling — will not open until Septemer 15, and then on a minimum day basis until September 18. Enrollment at the new plant is expected to exceed 1,000 freshmen, sophomores and juniors, with a faculty of 45, says Principal Louis Martin. Work currently is lagging, primarily due to a shortage of electricians, Morgan explained. Above is library scene and below is cafeteria.

BACK STAGE APPEARS confusing as these workmen speed along to prepare the Serramonte Theatre for use by mid-September. (Post Photos)

THE CHILDREN of members of the Pacifica Portola Bicentenial Celebration Committee enthusiastically joined in with their parents in making plans for the October and November festivities in Pacifica. Left, Betty Brien, 7-year-old daughter of the Jim Briens; Chris Ballew, 11-year-old son of the Fred Ballews, and Paul Starr, 8-year-old son of the Charles Starrs display bronze medallion the Bicentennial Banner and new issue of U.S. Postage stamps commemorating the coming events. that we had seen the game before. At a stop light, it came to us. The Giants had played a couple of games like that recently.

BUT TO THE HEROINES. There was a girl with big dimples and thick glasses named Jo Anne Dennis who, as we remember, hit a double, single and the game's only homerun . . . all legitimate blasts. We also vaguely remember an Ethyl Wetherton, we believe the name was, who hardly ever hit the ball but took the most vicious cuts we've seen since Luke Easter. There was a rangy blond centerfielder with the fine baseball name of Drinda Haagensen who kept telling us she was hitting .500, which really impressed us until we realized it was only the first game of the season and she was one for two.

And then there was this one whose name we didn't catch, but she was 38-24-34 . . . and she could really swing it too — the bat, the bat!

That's one good thing about covering girls' softball. If the game gets dull, you can always look at the girls.

D.C. Wife Kills Self

An attractive Daly City housewife shot and killed herself after a family spat with her husband in the couple's Ridgefield Avenue home August 12.

Police said Sandra E. Sims, 23, was found lying on the floor in a bedroom of the home with a gunshot wound in the left chest area. She was pronounced dead on arrival at Mary's Help Hospital at 6:10 p.m.

The victim's husband, Joseph, told investigators his wife suddenly arose and went into the bedroom during an argument.

There was a shot and when he rushed into the room he found his wife mortally wounded.

The couple have a 5-year-old son.

The weapon used was a .22-caliber revolver, police said.

Witnesses said Mrs. Erickson was crossing San Jose Avenue inside the crosswalk when the bus turned the corner off Mission Street onto San Jose Avenue for its return trip to San Francisco.

The matter was referred to the District Attorney's Office for consideration of a complaint against the driver.

Pacifica Youth Drowns

A Pacifica youth drowned Saturday afternoon in heavy surf off the beach near the Wander Inn, police reported.

Sixteen-year-old Ben Koutsis, of 904 Crespi Drive, drowned about 5:30 p.m. while swimming with two companions 150 yards north of the Wander Inn.

Koutsis, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Koutsis, was swimming with Ronald Price and Sandra Weegan when all three were caught in a strong current, according to police reports.

Price and Miss Weegan managed to reach shore, then Price and an unidentified man went back into the surf and dragged Koutsis to shore, officers said.

Fire Department personnel administered artificial respiration at the scene, but Koutsis could not be revived, officers said.

He was pronounced dead upon arrival at Mary's Help Hospital at 5:38 p.m.

Police said the youth drowned at a spot less than a quarter of a mile from his home. He had been helping other youths clean up the beach area in the morning, then returned for a swim in the afternoon.

Scouts From Australia See Orchids in South S.F.

Finding Australian native orchids on exhibit was added excitement for Australian Boy Scouts during a visit to South San Francisco's "Acres of Orchids," recently.

Rolf De Heer, 18, and Eric Sneddon, 16, both of Berowra, New South Wales, a suburb of Sydney, came to the United States on their first trip to attend the National Boy Scout Jamboree in Idaho.

Both of Queen's rank, corresponding to Eagle rank of American Scoutdom, Rolf and Eric were two of only six Australian Boy Scouts making the coveted trip. The contingent was selected on ability to serve as good ambassadors for their homeland. Each boy had to earn the money for the journey.

Rodl and Eric have orchid collections. So anxious were they to visit the Rod McLellan Company, the world's largest orchid hybridizers and growers, that they passed up a trip to Disneyland to visit "Acres of Orchids," 1450 El Camino Real.

Tips Given Motorists By DMV Official

"Observing five simple rules would make life much easier for thousands of California motorists in our auto-oriented civilization," said Manager John Krieger of the Daly City Department of Motor Vehicles office.

"Many motor vehicle drivers and owners needlessly fall into pitfalls which can be avoided by some simple paper work and forethought" he said.

"The trouble that comes from not following the rules is often blamed on the DMV bureaucracy. This is understandable. DMV is concerned with 12.5 million vehicles, 11.5 million drivers and 500 pages of the California Vehicle Code. All the more reason to avoid getting caught in the machinery."

Here are Krieger's five pointers:

1. If you sell a car person-to-person, hand the buyer the keys only when you are satisfied that he will promptly take your signed pink slip to DMV and transfer ownership to his name. It takes two to make a contract, and though you report the car sold, the record can't be changed until the buyer confirms the transaction. Subsequent owners' traffic citations are making life miserable for many people right now — long after the car they "sold" was driven away from their doors.

Your best bet is for you and the buyer to go to the nearest DMV office and complete all the paper work on the spot.

2. Report every change of address to DMV. Once as a driver; once as a vehicle owner. Apply this formula to every driver and vehicle owner in your household. At registration renewal time DMV mails renewal cards to the last address on record. If you no longer live trere, chances are you will never get a renewal notice and your license plate will enter next year without next year's sticker. Then your troubles may begin. Thousands of motorists come to grief by assuming that a notice to the post office is enough.

If you are unable to go to the local office you may phone and ask them to send you necessary forms, one for each driver and one for each vehicle in your family. When filled out, they may be maield to Sacramento.

3. Renew your driver's license on time. You may turn in your expiring license for a new one up to six months before your "renewal" birthday. It will still be dated from that birthday, and be good for four years. If you renew too late, DMV may have to give you a license good for only three years instead of four.

4. Carry insurance. Without it, a collision may cost you your driving privilege and your car registration. If anyone was hurt or more than $200 in damage occurred, the crash must be reported to DMV. The department is required to enforce the financial responsibility law against anyone who can't show that he can make damage payments if he is at fault.

Brisbane Housing Plan Told

Brisbane councilmen August 10 heard a proposal for a "federally supported local Code Enforcement Program" to upgrade housing and public improvements in the city.

Federal Housing and Urban Development representative Alan Avery outlined the program at Monday's council meeting, and city officials "took the matter under advisement for further study," according to City Manager Bruce Altman.

Mayor Robert McLennan said the program, if ultimately adopted, "would eventually affect every residence in the city.

"It would provide assistance for placing of public improvements, including curb, gutter, sidewalk, street trees and street lighting up to 75 per cent of cost," the mayor said.

"It would also provide complete upgrading of every residence in the community, assistance for those with low incomes in the form of grants, and assistance to those with moderate income in the form of low interest loans at three per cent," he said.

"It seems there is a possible way to upgrade the housing in our community at low cost, while receiving assistance for completion of the public improvements," McLennan said.

Under the "Code Enforcement Program," residents whose income is under $3,000 annually would receive federal grants to cover the entire cost of prescribed improvements, according to Altman.

Those with incomes up to $10,000 would be eligible for grants covering 75 per cent of the cost of improvements, the manager said.

Altman said the program differs from "urban renewal" in that none of the existing buildings in the city would be removed.

"Where urban renewal calls for leveling an area, this program is devoted to upgrading existing structures," he said.

A similar "Code Enforcement Program" is currently in progress in the city of Seaside, Altman said.

He encouraged residents to "make their feelings known" on the project during the next few weeks.

One Caught, Two Escape

One shoplitfing suspect was arrested by Daly City police Sunday and two others fled after they were spotted allegedly attempting to steal several cartons of cigarettes from the Mayfair supermarket on Geneva Avenue.

Arrested was Orrin K. Forest, 32, of San Francisco, who was also charged with operating a stolen car. His two accomplices escaped and have not, as yet, been identified.

The car was stolen from Lakewood, Calif., police said.

INTRODUCING: Skyline College

FIRST STAGE construction, a $10,000,000 enterprise, is complete on the hilltop San Bruno campus of Skyline college, and the four dramatic buildings ready to welcome their first complement of students September 10. The campus master plan calls for future additions of a campus center, aeronautics and technology buildings and a full-scale library to augment the present center for reading, research and audio-visual materials.

CSM Greets Third Campus

San Mateo County residents, particularly in the north and north-central areas, look forward to the September 10 opening of College of San Mateo's newest campus, Skyline College in San Bruno.

With the inaugural ribbon cutting, the county will mark completion of its long-projected system of higher education. The three-campus college district is ranked as one of the finest in the nation.

Since 1922, San Mateo Junior College District has been growing at a steady pace. However, during the past two years its development and expansion have been even more rapid.

College of San Mateo has served the county since 1922 at various sites in San Mateo city, now headquartering in its permanent location at College Hills.

Two years ago construction of Skyline College began. Phase I — $10,000,000 and 112 acres just west of Skyline Boulevard in San Bruno — will contain four buildings. These structures are in the center of a scenic valley which rests against the San Bruno mountains overlooking a majestic view of the coastline.

Along with the initial set of buildings and facilities outlay based on the 1964 bond issue, the newest complex in the San Mateo Junior College District will have the latest site development facilities as a result of the California State Legislature's recent approved appropriation of $635,000. These funds will be used for lighting, landscaping, and other functional aspects in beautifying the campus scene and setting.

The day college program anticipates an initial enrollment of more than 2,000 students, who will choo[illegible] from 55 distinct courses with more than 100 classes in the college's eight divisions. Major divisions are business education, English and foreign language, fine arts, life science and health education, mathematics and physical sciences, physical education and athletics and social science.

Involvement of the college's 75 administrators and instructors and 120 staff members as well as all its students in affairs of the surrounding cities will be emphasized as Skyline develops its role as a community-oriented institution.

Presently established curricula in the seven divisions will enable students to complete lower division requirements for entrance into upper division classes in other colleges and will provide training leading to career skills and lifelong cultural interests.

San Mateo Junior College District trustees and Skyline leaders have committed the new institution to a philosophy that "helps the student realize his potentialities by cultivating his cultural and vocational abilities . . . prepares the student to assume responsibilities of citizenship . . . develops the ability to think critically . . . and meets the needs of the community it serves by making the changes necessary in today's dynamic society."

Skyline Stresses the Fine Arts

Experimentation and the development of unique and distinctive programs with the latest facilities by an experienced and professional faculty is promised the students who enroll this fall term in Skyline College's fine arts division.

Richard R. Smith, formerly the head of the music department at College of San Mateo, will be in charge of the four departments at the Bay Area's newest community college campus. The division includes the art, drama, forensics, and music departments with a total of more than 55 classes. Each department will offer a wide spectrum of classes and courses to the more than 2000 daytime students and 2500 evening college enrollees who are expected to become a part of the local campus scene beginning, Wednesday, September 10.

Two talented, proficient artists — Joseph Tutsch and James Promessi — will be the instructors in the art program. Courses scheduled for immediate offering will include painting, drawing, design, and crafts. Students will have an opportunity to display their works throughout the campus.

A full season of dramatic and musical presentations during the first year of operation has been planned by experienced directors Ronald Weidman, Richard Rohrbacher and technical assistant Mark Becker.

The versatile trio will be using the two new theatre plants which have been specially designed and built for Skyline College. They include a flexible theatre with light-sound control booth; a main theatre (proscenium type which will seat 560 persons) and a fully equipped scene shop and costume laboratory.

Richard Rohrbacher, along with developing the drama department presentations, will be in charge of the college's forensics activities. Included will be the Northern California tournaments with other colleges as well as the intramural speakers contest on the campus.

A wide variety of performing groups and courses will be offered by the music department. They include band; choir; jazz band; orchestra; chorale; instrumental ensemble and coordination with the drama department in a college musical presentation.

Billy Robinson will be the instrumental director, while Robert Millar will be the choir director. Department chairman Smith also will be involved with the teaching of music classes.

Students interested in enrolling in Skyline College's fine arts programs or securing further information should call Skyline College, 3300 College Drive, San Bruno, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

SKYLINE COLLEGE structures have been designed to afford the maximum of protection from the fog that often hangs thickly over the site in western San Bruno. Students, administrators and faculty will be inside most of the time, traversing to and from classes and offices through fully-enclosed passageways. The college plans to have 2,000 daytime students and 2,000 evening college students, with more than 50 programs and hundredsofclasses.
